ANTIOCH, MARCH 30, 1990

Park Dist. in Antioch's future?

"Our residents are clamoring for better facilities, more programs and more space. All of the programs we can support at present are filled and so much more has to be done," says Antioch Parks Dept. Dir. Theresa Weber.

She adds, "Our neighboring park districts in Lake County operate recreational buildings, golf courses, indoor swimming pools and beautiful parks for everyone to enjoy."

Hoping to put the creation of an Antioch Park Dist. on the November ballot, the parks committee is inviting interested village and township residents to participate with the committee in the formation of the district.

If a park district is ultimately created in Antioch, it will be a separate taxing body and supported by tax revenues.

The park district will also be able to tap available grant monies for additional funding. As a department of the village, the parks department does not qualify for such funding.

With plans for the inclusion of a larger area than just the village in the proposed park district, committee members have been advised that a new park district would not be that much more costly and better services would be gained.

The present budget of the parks department is at $140,000 annually, all coming from village funds.

The Antioch Parks and Recreation Dept.'s programs are entirely funded by village monies, from the fees charged for these programs and from donations from civic organizations.

The Antioch Lions Club has been a principal contributor to the parks department having recently donated $20,000 for the improvement of the aqua center at Williams Park.

The committee feels that the village could use these funds in other areas if this cost was to be picked up by a new park district.

The parks committee members also feel that the growing population increase calls for a better parks and recreation system "to retain the quality of life as we know it in Antioch."

At a meeting of the village park and recreation committee held last week, committee members agreed that the recreation system must be prepared to offer more of the kind of activities that are needed by all age groups.

Included in the proposed park district will be the Village of Antioch and areas of the township that wish to use these facilities.

Interested citizens are being asked to register their support with Weber at the village hall.

Citizens protest, mayor looks for new top cop

The controversy over Antioch Mayor Robert Wilton's public refusal to reappoint Antioch Police Chief Charles Miller in May continues as reappointment time fast approaches.

A citizen's group supporting Miller's reappointment is passing out Miller buttons, putting signs up in the village and sending out a mailing for another demonstration for Miller set for the April 2 village board meeting.

Former mayor, Ray Toft, who appointed Miller chief twice, has a sign supporting the chief in his yard.

Although unconfirmed reports have Miller spending a lot of time with those spearheading his support group, Miller says he has "nothing to do with it." He adds, "I'm just sitting back quietly waiting to see what will happen."

Last fall, when the controversy first reared its head, Wilton said, "Although I was cognizant of problems within the police department when I was running for mayor, I had never worked with Chief Miller in the capacity of the chief law enforcement officer of the village, so I kept my campaign promise and reappointed the chief last May."

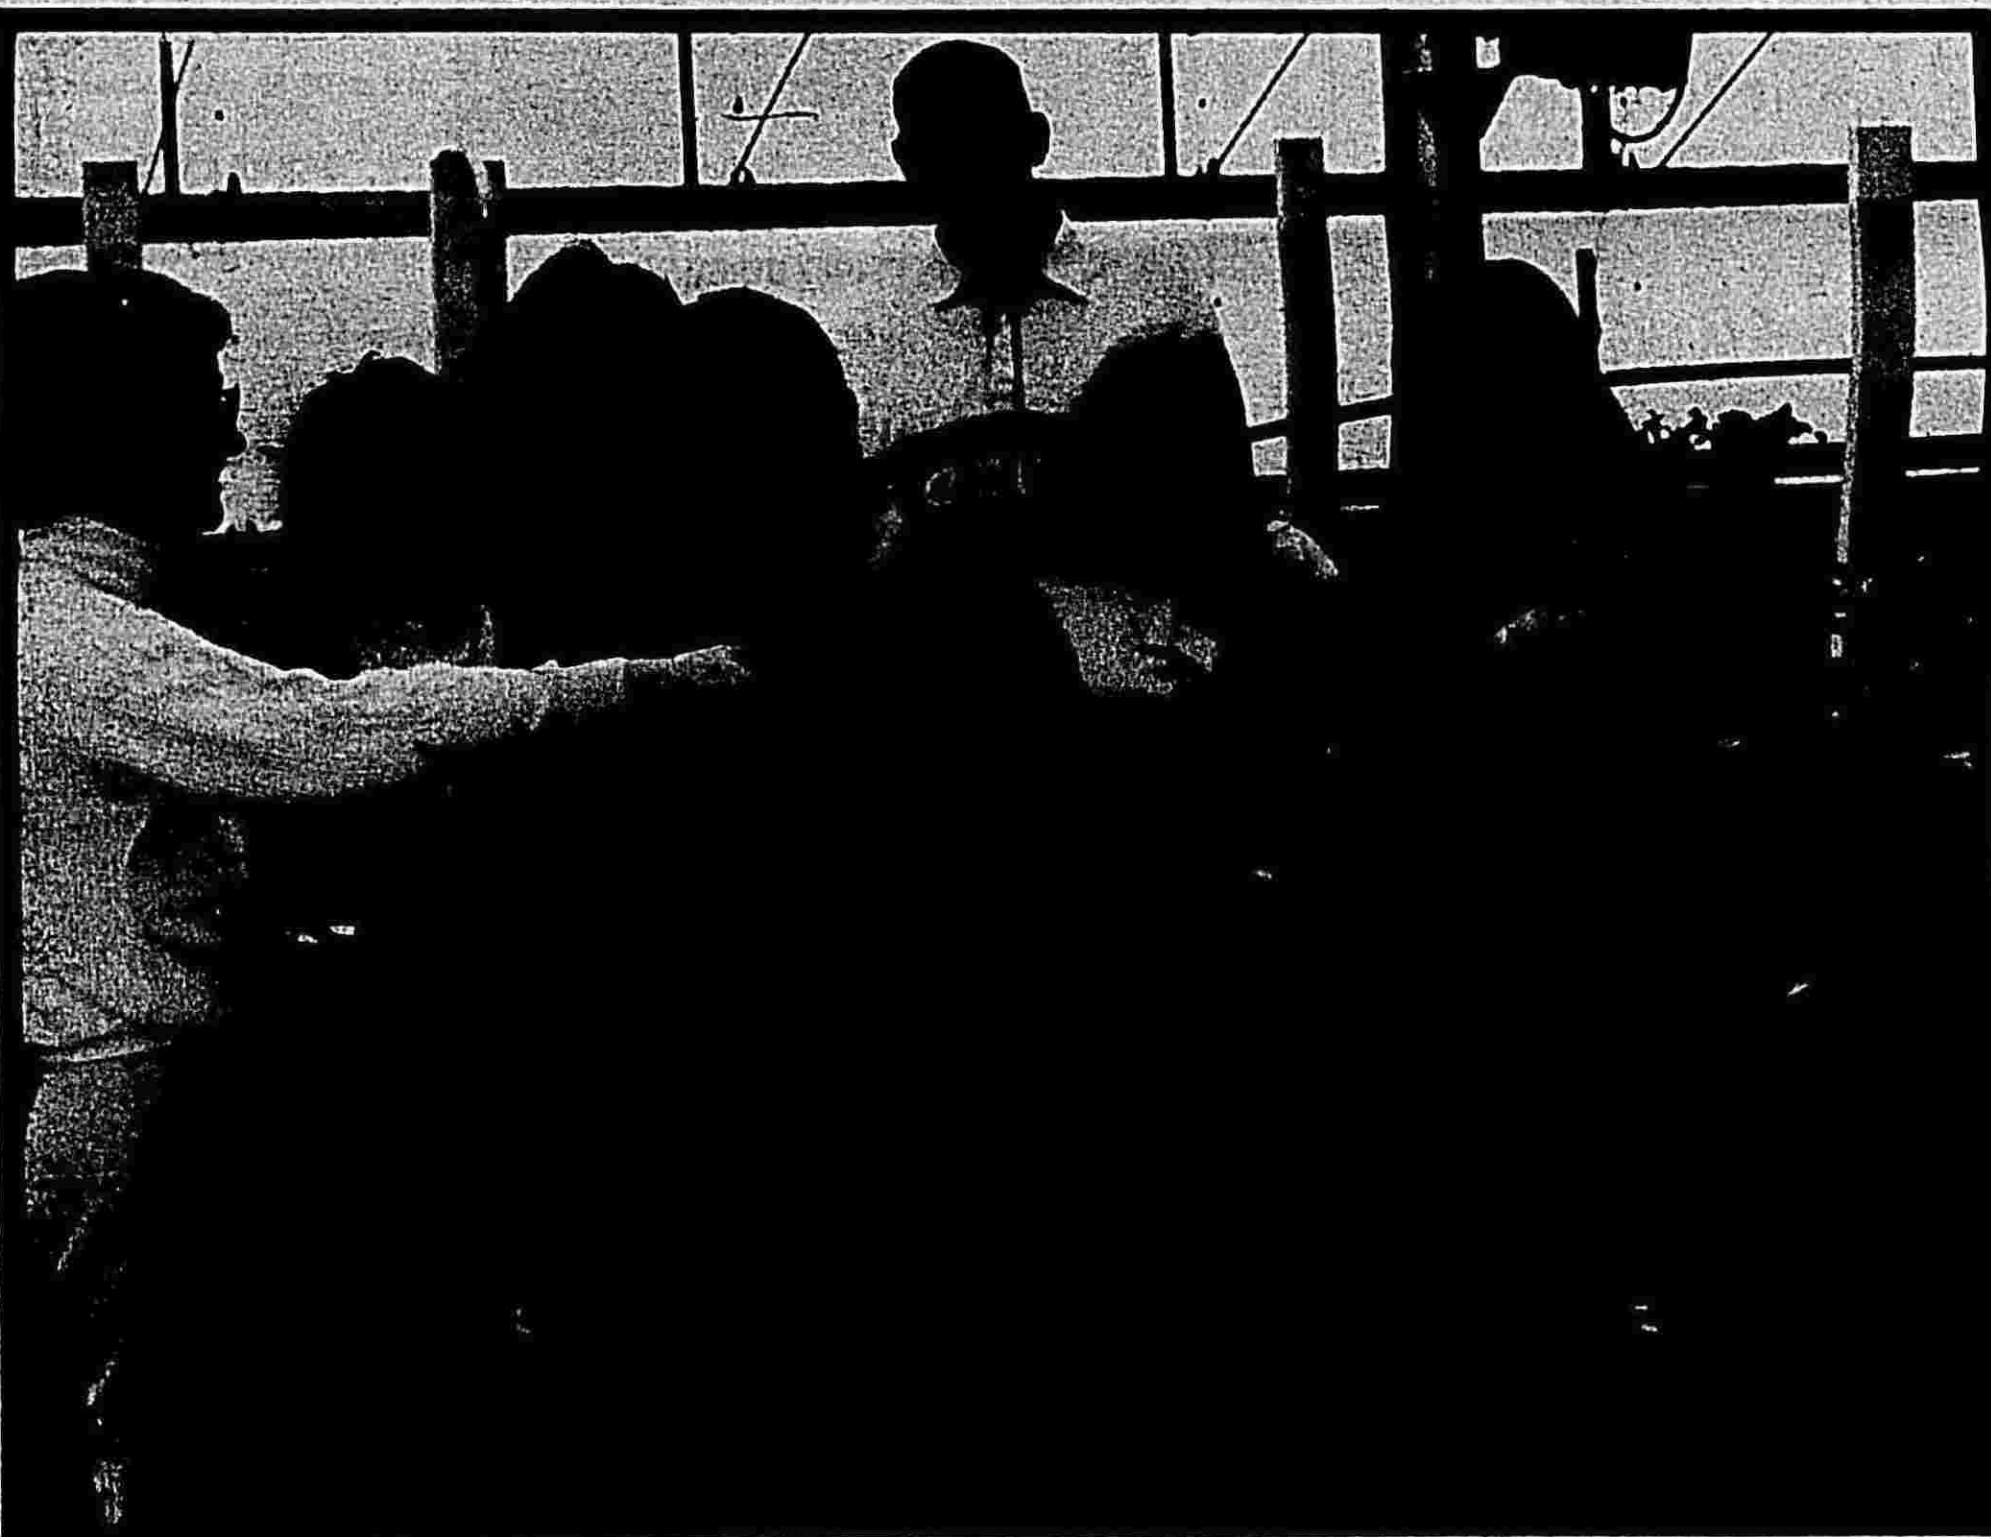

He then added, "I have attempted to do my best for the taxpayers of Antioch by seeing that they get the most for the almost $1 million it costs to run the police department."

Wilton: The citizens of Antioch deserve to get what they are paying for, the best in police services.

Wilton's first move after being elected was to see that the bar that had been in the police department for the last 10 years was removed.

After saying that there "were too many chiefs and not enough Indians" in the police department, Wilton put both Lts. Fisher and Watkins back in uniform and on the street. He has since remarked that the move has been working well.

As word of Wilton's intention to look (Continued on Page 8)

Churchill preferredGOP ready to elect new party chairman

by JOSEPH SOULAK
Lakeland Newspapers

Lake County Republican precinct committeemen will be in the spotlight Monday, April 2. That is when they will elect a new party chairman to succeed the outgoing Robert Neal.

Robert Churchill

The biennial meeting will be at the Midlane Country Club on the northwest side of Waukegan. Most of the county's 402 committeemen are expected for the 7:30 p.m. meeting in the Chandler Room.

Neal, as outgoing chairman, will call the meeting to order. A temporary chairman will be elected since Neal cannot serve. He lost his primary election last week to fellow township Republican John Nordigan.

Those attending will then elect a chairman, vice chairman, secretary and treasurer. They will do so by weighted vote, giving more clout to the populous townships.

Many names have been mentioned as succeeding Neal. They include Libertyville Twp. GOP Chairman Pat Uriarte, Warren Twp. GOP Chairman Shawn Depke, Zion mayor and state Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis, state Rep. William Peterson of Prairie View and Shields Twp. Republican Chairman Mary Beattie of Lake Forest.

Peterson and Uriarte withdrew this week—Uriarte because she could not put together the countywide support, Peterson because he is already too busy.

This left a strong legislative contender in 62nd Dist. state Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa).

Churchill, who has been in Springfield for eight years, is seen as capable. As state Assembly minority whip, he has a high-profile role in Springfield. He is personable and has a strong following among the Lake County Republican party faithful. He is strongly supported by those committeemen north of Rte. 120, the area he represents in the Assembly.

Churchill has the ear of Gov. Jim Thompson, who uses Churchill as a sounding board and to test legislation.

Churchill said he talked to Peterson about the chairman's job, but did not say if they made a deal. Afterwards he said: "Yes, I am interested in the Lake County chairman's job. If elected I will make the time for this job by delegating and organizing. Much of the chairman's job involves attending meetings and party functions. I already do that."

Churchill, who has bigger political ambitions than state representative, could see some opportunities in succeeding Neal.

He might not give the job the same 24-hours-a-day hands-on approach as Neal, but that isn't necessary. This caused divisions in a party.

Beattie emerged this week as a dark horse with growing support along Lake Michigan and in west Lake County. She has been township party chairman for 15 years. Involved in her husband's Chicago fine arts business, she is a journalist, public relations person and fund raiser for (Continued on page 42)

Testimonial to honor State Rep. Matijevich

State Rep. John Matijevich (D-North Chicago) of the 61st Dist. will be honored at a bipartisan testimonial for his 24 years in the state legislature on Friday, May 24. It will be at the Holiday Inn, Rtes. 45-83 in Mundelein.

Honorary chairman of the program will be Michael Madigan, speaker of the House.

Matijevich, who is as highly regarded in Springfield as in Lake County, has served for 24 consecutive years in the House representing a primarily Democratic district. For many people, municipalities and, even, Lake County, Matijevich has done as much and supported equally important legislation as his Republican counterparts from the same area.

The dinner is expected to be well attended by state, county and local leaders. Tickets at $50 each may be obtained by calling Democratic party Chairman Betty Ann Moore at (708) 816-8303.

Matijevich is running for re-election in the fall general election.

When a heart attack strikes, time is as precious as life itself.

The sooner you receive expert medical attention after the onset of a heart attack, the better your chances for recovery.

For the people of Lake County, expert medical attention is as close as Victory Memorial Hospital. We not only train the paramedics in northern Lake County, but we're located just a few minutes from your home, and our state-of-the-art emergency department is staffed by board-certified doctors and nurses prepared to respond to any cardiac emergency. (Board Certified means a doctor has reached the highest possible level of accreditation in his or her medical specialty.)

When a heart attack victim enters our doors, we immediately begin to stabilize his or her condition. Once stable, some patients may require the administration of modern medications that can effectively restore circulation to the blocked arteries of the heart.

Victory Memorial physicians are fully qualified and well experienced in treating heart attack patients. Patients requiring cardiac catheterization can undergo the procedure at Victory Memorial through a technical exchange program we have initiated with the cardiologists of St. Luke's Medical Center in Milwaukee, a leading cardiac care facility in the Midwest.

Our association with St. Luke's also helps those patients who may require more extensive treatment. Should that need arise, we're prepared to transport patients to St. Luke's.

If you would like to learn more about the comprehensive heart care at Victory Memorial, ask your doctor. Or, for a free physician referral or a free brochure outlining our heart care program, call (708) 360-4101.

No track in Bristol, Brainerd backs out!

Members of the Bristol Community Action Committee and all the other area residents opposed to Brainerd International's proposed auto racetrack have been victorious!

Last week, David Ames, president of Brainerd, announced that he was withdrawing Brainerd's proposal to locate in Bristol because of all the opposition, but would still be locating the track somewhere between Milwaukee and Chicago.

Ames is now looking at acreage outside of Genoa City in Walworth County with access to Rte. 12.

Bristol Twp. Chairman Noel Elfering, who was negotiating with Brainerd on the sale of some of his land for the track, said that being no money had changed hands, he was left with nothing but a headache from the entire episode.

While backing the racetrack proposal, Elfering's barn burned down, he lost 17 cows to poisoning and the lugnuts on the wheels of a school bus he drives were found loosened.

Elfering felt that the cow and wheel incident might be attributed to those opposed to the track.

Bristol Supv. Audrey Van Slochteren commented that the dissolution of the plans for the racetrack did not mean that the push for bringing county zoning into Bristol Twp. was no longer necessary.

A referendum on the township adopting the Kenosha County Zoning Ordinance will be on the April 7 ballot for the spring election.

Elfering said, "The only people that benefit from zoning are those who have money. They can get any zoning changed if they want to."

But Elfering added, the question of county zoning would now be left up to the people at the polls.

The week before Brainerd withdrew its proposal, the Bristol Twp. Board unanimously denied the racetrack company's request that the township waive its amusement ordinance.

This was the second strike against bringing an auto racetrack into the Chiswaukee area. Brainerd was turned down earlier when met with similar opposition in Mt. Pleasant in Racine County.

Over 30 local home improvement professionals and lending specialists exhibited at the two-day event. Financing information was provided on-premises by State Bank lending officers.

Drug task force starts to work

Claudette Skvarce, who is heading the village's drug task force, reported that the task force is working on having parents see drugs and drug paraphernalia confiscated by Antioch Police and is also setting up committees to find what drug rehabilitation aid is available in area so pamphlets can be distributed. Skvarce suggested that the village approve the task force's soliciting of donations from community organizations for operation costs.

Other ideas in the working with the Villages of Lake Villa and Lindenhurst include anti-drug vehicle stickers, and murals on outside store walls.

W.C. Petty spelling winners

Millburn wins national pioneer curriculum award

What do Wadsworth and Boston have in common?

If you consider geography and population, not much.

But when it comes to academic programs which are trend setters, both are home to award winners as far as the American Assn. of School Admin. is concerned.

The national group honored Millburn as one of the 12 schools in the nation which were recognized for pioneering ways to reach students about the interdependence of the world and about Asia, Africa and Latin America. The district was presented the "Leaders in Development Education" award, given by the AASA during its annual convention in San Francisco.

"The purpose was to make students more aware of the third world," Millburn

Supt. James Blockinger said.

As part of the project, the students studied Oral Rehydration Therapy, making it from sugar and salt water. Teacher James Norgard coordinated the junior high program.

The program received national publicity when it was a subject of an article in the School Administrator magazine.

"We were surprised," Blockinger said when school officials were told of the honor.

In presenting the award, AASA President Dean Speicher noted the importance of developing education in this time of global change and global competitiveness. "We all know from reading the newspapers, that we live in a fast-changing and interdependent world," he said.

The districts winning the award include Richmond Community Consolidated School District and Muscatine, Iowa were Midwest schools.

The experience of these districts, which is being shared through the AASA Leadership in Education project, offers models proving that any school district can successfully teach its students about the whole world we live in, overcoming "geographic illiteracy".

Vocational winner

Russ Fairchild in hospital, get well wishes welcome

by LIZ SCHMEHL
(708)395-5380

Okay, people, get out your pencils and paper and take a moment to drop Russ Fairchild a cheery get well note. As you all know, Russ is a long-time Antioch resident and he entertains us each year with his well-known "Holiday Stroll" column in this paper. Russ recently entered Victory Memorial hospital to undergo some surgery and is now recuperating. Russ likes to keep himself busy and I am sure he would appreciate hearing from all of his Antioch friends and neighbors as he works on getting back into the swing of things. Russ is definitely known as a good Samaritan in and about town, and now it is our turn to repay a small portion of his kindness by letting him know we love and appreciate him and are pulling for his speedy recovery. Get well soon, Russ, it is almost time to take us all on a "Springtime" stroll through Antioch. If you do not know Russ's address, you may send your message to Russ in care of me at 41142 N. Clara Ave., Antioch, and I will gladly forward them on to him.

Editor Visit

As I mentioned to you before, my dear friend and long-time Antioch resident, Ceilia Bennett, now a resident of Oxford, Ga., still enjoys reading her old "Hometown" paper in her new home. Ceilia's mother, Mary Vojtesak, from Burbank, Ill., has been visiting Ceilia in Georgia since Feb. 2. Ceilia is thoroughly enjoying her mom's visit and has kept her busy with visits to many of the area's points of interest, attending shows, going shopping, visiting friends and relatives, and eating out. Mary is really enjoying the warmer climate and enjoys her daily sun baths on the patio. She will be heading back to Burbank on April 29 and Ceilia will be counting the days until her mom is able to come again.

Last weekend was definitely "party time" in the Grass Lake area. On Saturday, March 17, about 50 people gathered at the home of Bob and Darlene Olenick to execute a fantastic surprise 50 birthday celebration for Bob. The organizer of this gala event was none other than his beautiful daughter, the great party giver, Tricia Olenick. All of the guests came decked out in outfits diet. So now, thanks to Bob turning 50, I am back to bike riding, and limiting my "enormous" food intake.

40th Birthday

On Sunday, March 18, about 20 people gathered at the home of Patti be one of the ushers and the other usher will be Bob Hendricks. The bride's attendants will be wearing aqua dresses, and the fellas will wear gray tuxedos with aqua accessories. Debbie and Rob will honeymoon in the Wisconsin Dells area and will be living in Lake Villa after the wedding.

Thank You

Paul Ketto, newly elected Precinct 9 Committeeman, would like to thank everyone who supported him, and would like to give special recognition to Joe, Shirley, Dee, Patty, Jim, Carl, Emma, Frank, Susie, and Bob. Sorry folks, Paul did not give me last names, but I am sure you all know who you are and how much Paul needed and appreciated your help. Paul will endeavor to keep everyone in Precinct 9 posted as to up-coming Republican activities that concern us all and urges everyone to contact him when necessary at (708)395-7195. The final results of the election were very close. Paul defeated his opponent, JoAnn Osmond, by only 14 votes, 92-78. I'd like to congratulate both Paul and JoAnn for making such a fine showing at the polls.

Get Well

Karen Georgeson called and asked me to extend a get well wish to Tudy Payne. Tudy is a long-time Antioch area resident and she is home recuperating after surgery at St. Francis hospital in Evanston. Tudy is blessed with five great kids who are pitching in to help mom's recovery to be quick and complete. Sue Baird, Debbie Baird, Janice Payne, Andrea Payne, and Chuck Payne. Tudy, with so many people pulling for you, I am sure you will be feeling fine real soon.

Earn Awards

The following Grass Lake School music students earned awards at the Northwestern Univ. Music Competition on Saturday, March 17. Amy Dogan achieved first place for a beautiful vocal solo and a second place for a clarinet solo and Vickie Quinlan received second place for a clarinet solo. Angie Grob and Karen Van Patten received a second place award for a flute and clarinet duet and Angie also received a third place for a flute solo. Selena Plattner earned first place for a coronet solo and Jenny Santiemmo received second place for a clarinet solo. This competition was co-sponsored by North-western Univ. and the Northshore Concert Band. There were over 100 schools participating and Thomas Bainbridge accompanied all of the Grass Lake solos on the piano.

Well folks, that's it for this week. Spring vacation is just about over and the kids will be back to school and their normal routines soon. Till then, take care and be happy!

Opps, I almost forgot, election judge, Dee Samson, asked me to say hello to her vit this column. So, Hello, Dee, call me sometime with a tidbit or two!

Hometown Goodies

significant of clothes worn back in the 1950's. It was hard for me to decide on an outfit since I was only a teeny tiny baby back then! There were greasers, poodle skirts, and pony tails everywhere. Seven "lovely" ladies sang three beautiful melodies to Bob, written especially for the occasion. Six of them wore poodle skirts, while the lead singer wore a "Lizard" on her skirt. I will not mention everyone present, as I would be sure to leave someone out. Instead I will give the highlights of the evening as I recall them. Jamie Seputis looked adorable in her pink felt skirt with a white flocked poodle on it, and Gloria Gambit and Judy Fechner tied for cuteness with her hair done in pig tails. Ray Brausam looked great with his make-shift tattoo on his arm and Al Vandrush looked like a real greaser with his hair slicked back and curls hanging down on his forehead. Jim Harris had on his original "Lane Tech High School" sweater and it was only slightly snug in the shoulders and around the middle. Wally Henning sported an ACHS sweater and Marie Brausman looked strange in her acquired cat eye '50s spectacles. Tony Santiemmo, Gary Groh, and John Boerman formed a singing trio and the Lizard was unrecognizable with her hair set in pin curls, wrapped in a scarf, over-shaped ruby red lips, and dark long eyebrows. Some people remarked that I looked like "Betty Davis" in the movie "Whatever happened to Baby Jane." Last but not least, Linda Boerman's dark eye brows, ruby lips, and full bangs made her look like Joan Crawford. The party was a huge success and when I saw the video of what I looked like in my "Lizard/poodle" skirt, it shocked me back into my Santiemmo to execute the second part of Sally Hiller's 40th birthday surprise. Sally turned 40 on March 10, during her 12-day visit to Medjagore, Yugoslavia. The trip was given to her by her family and friends in honor of this special birthday and the party after her return was to wish her happy birthday, once again, and to hear all about her special trip. Sally was not expecting the celebration and everyone had a terrific time listening to Sally's Yugoslavian adventures and in turn roasting Sally with special stories concerning their encounters with her.

Another Birthday

Then on Monday, March 19, Donna Schmehl, Barb (Schmehl) Filips, Dan Filips, Karen Schmehl, Matt Centanno, Jimmy Schmehl, and the Lizard gathered to help father/husband, Jim Schmehl, celebrate his birthday. After dinner, Jim enjoyed opening his gifts and was able to blow out all of his candles in one breath.

Park City ZBA begins review of zone districts

Park City commenced the process of updating the zoning code books with a meeting of the Zoning Board of Appeals Monday.

"Keep manufactured housing a completely separate identity," Park City Ald. Ken Enberg said.

Enberg told the ZBA of bitter eviction notices when mobile home park owners decide to change the use of their land. Enberg, who serves as president of both the Illinois Mobile Homeowners Assn. and the Northeast Illinois Mobile Homeowners Assn., said Park City is "unique because when it was established, there were 450 mobile homes. We don't want what happened to us what happened in Glenview and Countryside."

"We recognize the need to keep manufactured housing separate," Ed Tripp, chairman of the ZBA, said.

He stated the manufactured housing is listed under R-3 zoning.

Enberg said that leaves "the door open" for possible moves under conditional use permit. It was pointed out applicants for conditional use permits must go through the hearing process.

Enberg asked that an opinion on the legality legal be obtained. Regarding the changing of the zoning structure, Tripp said there will be residential, commercial and industrial zoning with five different types of residential. The zones are presently listed by letter.

The ZBA is expected to consider the changes further when it meets again, April 16 at Park City Community Center.

'Double-dipping' saga continues for Geary

by MIKE PRAMSHAFFER
Lakeland Newspapers

Former Avon Twp. Supv. Norm Geary has until April 11 to respond to legal papers served to him March 12 by the Avon Twp. Board, which is seeking repayable funds from Geary totaling $12,880, plus applicable interest and contributions.

The board feels Geary owes the township approximately $15,000 for "double dipping" from 1977-87 during his term in office as supervisor.

Geary was knocked out of office by current Supv. Russ Christian a year ago.

The township is being represented by Rudy Magna, Jr., a Gurnee-based attorney. Geary received a trustee's salary in addition to his pay for being supervisor, and now the township is trying to get those funds back through the services of Magna.

Geary said he has instructed his attorney, Warren Fox of Waukegan, to seek a dismissal of the case because "there's no merit to it." He added that he may, in turn, seek legal action against the township for its "malicious suit" if indeed the court rules in favor of the township

"That suit is malicious and if I lose this case, I may consider a counter-suit," the former supervisor said.

Geary, who served as Avon Twp. supervisor for 26 years, said he also feels it is a conflict of interest for Nineteenth Judicial Circuit Judge Charles Scott to be handling the case because "Magna was his campaign manager four years ago."

He said he hopes Scott will be removed from handling the case.

Geary, who currently is chairman of the Lake County Board, believes the township is misusing taxpayers' funds by paying Magna legal fees during the case. "I don't know what they're paying him, but I would think the township has better ways to spend its taxpayers' money," he said.

Geary informed the board Dec. 27 that Chief Deputy State's Atty. Helen Rozenberg had previously addressed the matter and felt it should have been dropped because she found nothing in the law which requires Geary to return the funds.

She also pointed out, according to Geary's letter, that "the voluntary payment doctrine" prohibits the board from getting the money returned.

Geary said the township supervisor has been getting the "double payments" for 50 years, and that the board had approved such payments during his stint as supervisor.

The former supervisor said Rodney Rockenbach, a trustee on the board during Geary's term, "signed all payment vouchers for my salary until May of 1987, which is when he first questioned this payment."

Rockenbach was a member of the Avon 1st slate headed by Christian which defeated Geary's team of candidates last year.

Geary also said that he was underpaid during his term as supervisor, and that the trustee salary he was getting helped make up the difference in compensation when compared to the salaries of other supervisors in the county at that time.

In Fiscal year 1988-89, Geary received a supervisor's salary of $32,800. Some of the salaries of other supervisors in the county which Geary asserted to include: Alberta Miller, Grant Twp. - $38,658; Bob Depke, Warren Twp. - $37,225; and Mike Graham, Libertyville Twp. - $35,601.

"This is just personal harrassment. They've already ruined by public character, and now they want to drag my name through the mud some more," Geary was quoted as saying in a recent Lakeland Newspapers publication.

Christian was unavailable for comment at press time as he was out of town.

OVERPRICING CAN BE COSTLY

QUESTION: Several REALTORS have told me that my house is overpriced by about 20% and, in the long run, could cost me money. How can this be?

ANSWER: Because overpricing stops buyers from considering your home. No matter how much is spent on advertising, an overpriced home will not sell. Prime prospects who should have bought, have gone elsewhere to buy. When a home remains unsold too long, interest stops because buyers become wary. Eventually your house will sell, but for less than you could have realized had you priced it realistically. Use extreme caution in pricing your house more than 5 percent above its market value.

OVERPRICING A HOUSE will lose more good prospects than anything else.

Open the window

Now that the voters have deposed controversial Lake County Republican Chairman Robert "Bob" Neal, the GOP has a golden opportunity to install new leadership at the April 2 party convention in Waukegan. We hope precinct committee persons who statutorily elect party leaders for the next two years open the window and let the fresh air flow in.

Eight years of Neal Republicanism seriously eroded confidence of a large number of party members and turned off equally large numbers of independents or "swing" voters who select candidates in November on the basis of merit and not party label. Neal's defeat averted a showdown that would have come to a head this November and took away the issue of bossism and bald-faced power politics that the Democrats surely—and rightly—would have exploited.

Neal's arrogant abuse of authority, which he disguised as zeal and dedication, had resulted in a closed or closing primary. Access to the ballot always has been a Lake County Republican tradition, a wellspring of party strength and success. Party leaders misguidedly were permitting their chairman to turn a political organization with broad-based voter support into a narrow focused, monolithic machine under the boot-heel dominance of an inner circle controlled by Chairman Neal.

As far as the future of the party is concerned, and probably in the nick of time, Republican voters realized what was happening and took appropriate action in the polling booth. The Lake County Republican party needs a breather from Neal's style of dictation and divisiveness. Ideally, the times call for a seasoned, firm hand at the helm. This is not time for a young Turk or another politician on the make. Theoretically, political power flows from the bottom up. Republican precinct committee persons have an opportunity to redirect their party. They ought not pass up the chance.

Letters To The Editor

Stop fruitless referenda

Editor:

By now, the boards of Gurnee Grade School Dist. 56 and the Warren-Newport library have received the message loud and clear—adjust your operations to the money you now have to work with. It's called budgeting. They keep growing as assessments escalate.

Stop bombarding the community with expensive needless, fruitless referenda. Stop the threats of dire consequences if you don't have huge new treasuries to dip into. What we have is adequate if used wisely. The existing facilities were built to handle what we now have.

Taxes have to be reigned in if families of the community expect to remain here, whether old-timers or newer arrivals to Gurnee.

I, for one, am tired of being told how run down and inadequate our facilities are. They aren't. Let's just take care of what we have and use it more productively for the basic purposes for which they were intended.

Deceitful reporting

Editor:

The use of the phrase "feeble attempt" to describe the two Democratic judges' attempt to complete their job and the job of the two missing Republican judges in Warren Twp. seemed unfair and biased.

Where were the Republican judges? Did they ever show up? The article never tells us.

Rather, the emphasis is unfairly placed on the Democratic judges, who did show up for work, and implies they were incompetent.

I wonder how this article would have been written if the Democratic judges failed to show up instead of the Republican judges. Would the Republican judges be hailed for their "heroic efforts." Would we then be told why the judges were not there?

By using selected adjectives and by leaving out details, the news is slanted to favor conservative and Republican views.

There is nothing wrong with having partisan views. But when they are presented as unbiased reporting, it is deceitful.

Margaret R. Ramberg

School leaders not at fault

Editor:

A recent letter to the editor from Mr. Sturm of Gages Lake dealt with the "we" versus "they" problem of financing new school buildings for Districts 56 and 50. The magnitude of the problem varies in these two districts, but the source of the overcrowding and depleted educational funds is the same: development without collecting adequate impact fees. The basic premise of Mr. Sturm's letter is that we who already live here should not have to pay to build a building for newcomers to Warren Township.

I would guess that most current residents of local communities agree that the developers should foot the bill for the needed classrooms and excess cost of educating the new students. However the writer seems to blame the school boards and superintendents for allowing the situation to exist. Elected officials for village, township and county board set policy and approve developments, not school boards. In fact, superintendents of Lake County may ask for higher fees, but the politicians may approve developments without any impact fees at all, or at continued low levels. Recently in Warren Twp., 34 houses were built with fees paid to two school districts of $7,000, while the Warren Township park district received $25,000. Most elected officials will not try to get developers to pay true cost to the communities under threat of law suits.

We voters have elected the officials who have approved these arrangements. In fact, this very week in several districts, voters have voted for pro-development candidates. In Warren Twp. we have elected Depke, knowing that he has promised to support a redrawing of the sewer agreement between the county and Gurnee so that more than 2,700 new families may move into the area. We even know that Depke is thrilled with the possibility of collecting fees to cover a quarter of the expense of building the new building needed for all the new students.

Schools can not turn away students just because they are broke and overcrowded. We've elected the officials who have welcomed these developers. To now refuse to vote for the referendums to build the needed classrooms and educate all the children (current or future) is like inviting guests to a dinner and refusing to provide the meal.

Housing idea catches eye of county

by BILL SCHROEDER
Lakeland Newspaper

A critical need for affordable housing in this locality has caught the attention of the Lake County Economic Development Commission.

Deputy Director Cranston O. Byrd is working on a plan to get input from a major Chicago area builder on the feasibility of expanding the basic single family dwelling to include an apartment unit of approximately 600 square feet which could be rented to assist in the payment of the monthly mortgage.

Byrd has turned first to a former colleague, Timothy Hernandez, when both were employed in the planning department of the City of North Chicago some years back. Hernandez now is associated with the giant Pulte Homes, Inc., of Hoffman Estates.

Byrd is responding to an idea advanced by Ed Surroz, a member of the commission, in this column several months ago. The deputy director already has given serious study to the concept and has pegged the project for families whose income would be stretched to afford payments on a $123,000 home without assistance.

There might be some argument that $123,000 is a bit high for housing for young couples, senior citizens and low income families who have the most difficulty finding suitable housing in the booming Lake County market. But it's a welcome start. The project is sure to get attention.

Review from a substantial developer is needed, in Byrne's opinion, to see if increases in building regulation compliance will fly. That's where Hernandez comes in. With code and financial requirements satisfied, Byrne sees need for education to sell government on how the combo homes fit in large developments as well as scattered lots.

Satisfying affordable housing is an idea whose time has come. In our opinion, the sooner the better.

TRIAL BALLOON—Mayor Frank Meier quietly is sounding out the idea of expansion of legalized gambling in Fox Lake. He sees the shuttered Pier Club, a lakefront eatery near downtown, as an ideal OTB (offtrack betting) site. From OTB at Pier Club, the visionary village president sees extension of the new Illinois Riverboat Gambling Law. "We've already got a riverboat on the Chain O'Lakes. It's a natural."

CURIOUS VOTE—Friends of County Board Dist. 5 Rep. Andrea Moore of Libertyville on the National Assn. of Counties' environment committee might be surprised to know about her efforts to scuttle the public acquisition of a sensitive and strategically located wetland in Grant Township. Moore did her best to defeat a motion at a land acquisition meeting of the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. to acquire about 80 acres, mostly underwater, which could well be the biggest bargain in the history of the district. The owner paid $1,750 for the parcel last year and could reap a three or four time profit at what still would be peanuts for the forest district. Moore's voting record is hard to track. NATCO held a conference recently in Washington attended by Moore and County Board Dist. 2 Rep. Debra Halas.

Don't be counted out! Vital funds at stake

by BERYL FLOM

The Lake County area could lose thousands of dollars in federal and state aid in the coming decade. This is not because of a budget cutback, or a lack of need for these vital funds. It is because the population of the Lake County area may be underestimated unless everyone living here becomes actively involved in the 1990 census.

Not only could we lose funding for important community programs, we stand the risk of being underrepresented in the state legislature and U.S. Congress. To avoid this, the League of Women Voters and many other concerned community groups are focusing their energies on ensuring that the 1990 Census will produce an accurate population picture of the Lake County area.

The census determines how seats in Congress are apportioned among the states, and also among cities and localities within states, to ensure that the number of people represented by each district area are as equal as possible. It determines how state legislatures and all other local legislative bodies are redistricted. It determines how billions of dollars of federal and state funds are distributed for critical projects and programs such as highways and mass transit, pollution control, and the Women, Infants & Children supplemental food program. It helps states and localities meet important planning needs for the next ten years.

Census forms will be mailed out in late March of 1990 to households in the Lake County area and across the nation, with forms due on April 1, designated National Census Day. This method has not been entirely successful in reaching everyone in our community. Unfortunately, many people see the census as a remote activity that has little impact on their lives.

Statistics show that minorities have traditionally been undercounted by the Census Bureau. In addition, people with non-traditional housing arrangements are also at risk of being undercounted. Districts with larger numbers of missed persons are deprived of their right to "one person, one vote" standards.

In an attempt to remedy this problem, census takers will be making visits to shelters, hospitals, and other facilities where those undercounted in the past may be present. In some cities, census workers will be taking to the streets, conducting interviews wherever they can in an effort to get people to answer the census.

Being missed in the census not only shortchanges those who are missed—everyone in Lake County stands to lose. By communicating to every person within our community the importance of answering the census, a difference can be made.

Editor's note: Beryl Flom is president of the League of Women Voters of Lake County. Flom is a resident of Riverwoods.

Condemnation: 2 views

How condemnation helps

Editor:

I would like to thank you for your honest coverage of the primary elections in Lake County. It was a breath of fresh and pure air compared to the slanted or no coverage given by the other newspapers.

With misrepresentation of facts by people who support the pro-development, Bob Neal-Jack Martin group it was good to see you get down to the real truths and point out the amount of money being spent to support candidates who will thwart the efforts the present board has been striving for to protect it's residents from over development which contributes to inflating taxes, flooding and loss of quality of life.

I would like to point out that in an interview with Renee Ferguson from Channel 5 news, Tekampe, president of Farm Bureau, made some inaccurate statements in regards to a parcel of land he owns that the Forest Preserve has filed for condemnation. He stated that he had 120 acres that he was going to sell to a developer for $50,000 acre and the Forest Preserve was willing to pay $5,000 per acre. On the surface this may seem unreasonable, but what Tekampe neglected to point out is that the Forest Preserve is interested in only 40 acres of his land, which is landlocked by the Epstein property, also designated as Forest Preserve.

Of this 40 acres - 35 acres is slough - flood plain and the other 5 acre is inaccessible for development. This leaves his 80 acre parcel, which is high and dry along Fairfield Rd., available for development and since it borders Forest Preserve property it will bring in a much higher value, ask any Realtor.

As for the question of how much his land is worth, considering presently it borders no municipality, is zoned, agricultural-countryside, and is 35 acres of slough (which is unusable land, but provides many benefits in its present state, like stormwater protection and wildlife habitat, I would agree $5,000 acre is fair in my opinion, considering unusable land has a value of $2,000 an acre, and he will be able to sell his other 80 acre at a higher profit, due to its location to adjacent Forest Preserve.

This conflict is the main reason condemnation is so valuable to both landowner and government body. It would be unfair for us as taxpayers to pay an inflated price for property and unfair to landowners to get less than fair market value. If there is a disagreement it is left to a court, who is presented with evidence from both sides to verify their positions and make the final decision. The proceedings get a bad name because lawyers often try to delay actions, so they may reap a larger fee. This delaying action hurts not only the landowner, but also the forest preserve. That is why the Forest Preserve's Land Acquisition committee has been working with landowners trying to find solutions between them and the landowners so both are satisfied. The result, only two parcels out of 82 purchased last year went through condemnation, I think this says a lot about our present board's success at negotiations.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Tekampe cannot see the benefits the Forest Preserve will be able to provide farmers in Lake County, who do want to continue to farm their land, including lifetime estates which can ease the financial burden plaguing so many of the farmers in this area. As president of the Farm Bureau he is obviously not representing the farmers in this county but developers and development interests.

Misleading the public

Editor:

I feel compelled to address misstatements (as well as many misstatements being made these days in the newspapers concerning the amount of land acquired by the Forest Preserve through condemnation proceedings).

On March 9, in "Politically Speaking" it was noted that last year the Forest Preserve Dist. acquired 82 parcels totaling, 1,794 acres in nine townships and that only two of them were taken by condemnation. You did not consider that 10 other condemnation cases were filed but settled before trial.

The point is, all of the property taken after a condemnation lawsuit is filed, whether by jury verdict or by settlement, is property taken by condemnation. The Forest Preserve is misleading the public if it thinks that the suits that were "settled" were concluded by the voluntary mutual agreement of the parties. There is nothing "voluntary" about a condemnation lawsuit.

I am an attorney in Waukegan. I recently tried a condemnation suit against the Forest Preserve (a 60-acre parcel on Rollins Rd.) to verdict. I can tell you first hand, that the trial of a condemnation case is expensive, time-consuming, and very stressful on the property owners. The cases that are settled are not necessarily settled because the owner receives a price that he really felt was fair for the property; they are settled because the land owner wishes to go no further with the expense, time involvement, and stress of the situation.

The Forest Preserve has, on more than one occasion, offered incredibly low prices for private land. While it certainly is in the best interests of the taxpayers, that the Forest Preserve purchases property for its price, that price is not always the fair market value of the land. The problem is fair administration of the process of condemnation.

I personally am very much in favor of the Forest Preserve acquiring land. I am also personally concerned about the tactics used and the methodology by which prices are finally determined. While the Forest Preserve doesn't need anymore "bad press" than it has already received, the Forest Preserve also should be truthful when making representations to the public about what it has accomplished and how it has obtained that accomplishment.

Politically Speaking

Friends are advising Warren Twp. Supv. Robert Depke to do some homework.

Now that he is back on the County Board as a result of last week's nomination, he has some fence-mending to do if he wants a return trip in the 1992 election or, even, as supervisor.

You see, Depke lost his own precinct in last week's County Board race.

Robert Depke

Fred Bigham

Sandy Cermak

Carol Calabresa of Libertyville led the count in Warren precinct 244 with 155 votes to help her overall 34-vote victory over Depke running mate Pam Newton. Calabresa's ballot partner, Donald Coulson of Libertyville, was second with 138 votes. Depke came in third with 130 punches and Newton with 128.

Adding to the fray was a write-in candidate against Depke for committeeman. Larry Schwager garnered 62 votes.

He and Depke's neighbors are mad about the supervisor's support for extension of North Shore Sanitary Dist. sewers to 1,200 acres between Gurnee and Third Lake where five developers want to build homes. That battle will be waged on the County Board before Depke takes office.

Don't count County Board Chairman Norman Geary politically dead. He's got as much election charisma as ever.

The March primary returned him to the Republican precinct committeemen's post he has held for years in Grayslake.

That put Geary 2-0 against a man who wants his jobs—Pat Anderson.

The Avon Twp. highway commissioner tried to take Geary's County Board post in 1986. That didn't happen. Neither did his bid for committeeman earlier this month.

All of which adds two more years to Geary's 33 years in the political arena ranging from village trustee to the to man on the County Board.

Last week's election Republican precinct committeeman in Wauconda Twp. brought the party closer together, says one man. Committeemen Bill Whiteley, who engineered last spring's village board election that saw a new mayor, trustees and village clerk take office, did it again.

Five of the people he convinced to run swept into office March 20. They are Kathleen Nielsen, who beat former Village Clerk Venita McConnel; Fred Kueking, who beat the last of the Dickson powerhouse, Edward; Kathleen Lersch; Whiteley; and Sandy Cermak, who defeated Fred Bigham, the highly visible Island Lake committeeman.

Whiteley calls his group independents with the goal of healing a 10-year split in the township party. That means bringing together the mainstream Wauconda Twp. Republican Club where some people think McConnel calls the shots and the Wauconda Twp. Republican Assn. where Howard Bieze is supposed to be the man behind the scenes.

Another upset Republican precinct committeeman's race occurred last week was in Wauconda Twp. Two political foes locked horns.

In one corner was incumbent Howard Bieze, who stages an annual August corn roast and is the figurehead of the maverick the Wauconda Republican Twp. Assn. He was an on-again, off-again candidate for the County Board this year.

Over in the other corner was former committeeman, retired County Board member and Wauconda Twp. Supv. Gerald Beyer. Beyer won this rematch. It returned him to a post Bieze won two elections ago.

Until this year the name Fred Bigham wasn't exactly a household political word. In Island Lake he gained a name as a tireless worker for the Lions Club and as a Republican precinct committeeman.

Last spring he was the man who coordinated the defeat of Libertyville Twp. Supv. F.T. "Mike" Graham by insurance man Ralph Swank Jr.

In the March primary he was given the bigger job of electing candidates to the County Board in districts 4, 5 and 6. He was 4-for-6 to give the Neal Republicans the edge they need to elect their own chairman later this year and bury the open spacers.

His assignment of electing new Libertyville Twp. committeemen was far less successful.

But the big loss was Bigham's own race for committeeman in Island Lake. He was beaten by the attractive Sandy Cermak, an Island Lake trustee and tireless volunteer for the schools.

How did she do it, Bigham was asked? "She got 123 votes and I only got 91. Also, she must be a Democrat. She hasn't paid her $25 annual dues to the Republican Federation."

Staffing the county's 402 polling places in the March 20 primary was more of a problem than usual for county Clerk Linda Hess. An estimated 2,000 judges were used.

In Warren 244 two Republican judges didn't show for the 6 a.m. opening. It was later learned one flew to New York to be at the side of a sick parent. Neither hide nor hair has been seen of the other one. Those polls opened 40 minutes late after Hess sent three of her people to shore up the staff.

Two judges at Ela 397 simply overslept. That meant a one hour delay in starting the voting day.

Wauconda 267 and 269 opened one-half hour late. The car of the lead judge with the ballots broke down.

Democrats ready to accept cross-overs

Like the Republicans, the Democrats, too, will pick a new county chairman on Monday, April 2. It is state law.

The county's 91 Democratic precinct committeemen will hold their meeting at the Madison Avenue restaurant, 34 N. Sheridan Rd., Waukegan. The evening begins with a social hour at 7 p.m. and the election of a chairman, vice chairman, secretary and treasurer at 8 p.m.

Betty Ann Moore of Libertyville is a candidate for re-election. Although she perceives a quiet challenge to her two-year reign, an intimate confided: "It won't really happen. Everyone in public office, though, can always expect competition."

Moore said she has spent her two years as chairman "gluing and patching." She has molded the party into a semblance of ballot respectability. This has occurred in traditionally Republican Lake County where the Democratic party has always taken a back seat in elections, public offices and voter support.

Moore's goal is to change that. This will be done by building on the elective success of 12-year Democrat County Clerk Grace Mary Stern, now 58th Dist. state representative, and her courthouse successor, eight-year office holder County Clerk Linda Hess. The Democratic party is also proud of its patriarch, state Rep.

John Matijevich (D-North Chicago) of the 61st Dist., who has 24 years in the state Assembly.

No Democrats other than the incumbents are seen as odds-on favorites in the November general election. But that could change overnight.

Some of the losers in March Republican primary County Board races have been mentioned as running as Democrats in the fall. This is preferably to running as an independent, which would require thousands of signatures by a late-June deadline.

Running as a Democrat could happen as late as Aug. 30 via a caucus of district Democratic precinct committeemen. This can only be done in areas where the Democrats have not already slated someone. "Cross-overs are welcome if they are sincere," Moore said. "These people are welcome to reflect the views of the Democrats if they feel their party has not allowed them to do so."

Neal: Paige picked fairly

By STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Former Newport Twp. Precinct Committeeman Robert Neal is denying involvement in Charles Nordigan not being elected as Newport Republican Twp. chairman.

During a meeting at Nordigan's offices Tuesday afternoon, township precinct committeemen voted 2-1 to name Patricia Paige township GOP chairman. Nordigan, who defeated Neal in his home precinct in the March 20 election, is claiming the title because of a weighted vote method.

"It will be an injustice to the people if the majority do not have a chairman representing them," Nordigan said Wednesday. "What goes around, comes around."

"Patricia Paige was elected fair and square," Neal, who was not at the meeting, said.

Paige is Neal's cousin.

Neal blasted Nordigan for being a "self-centered person. I wish he could take losing as well as he takes winning."

"This was a put up," Nordigan countered, saying Paige is "schooled by Neal."

He pointed out that his precinct has more registered voters than the other two combined and he had 3.5 times more the weighted votes than the other winners.

Nordigan said there are now bylaws in Newport Twp. Other townships such as Libertyville, Wauconda and Deerfield.

Neal, who will be replaced as Lake County Republican Chairman when the GOP holds its annual convention Monday, said most townships, though, use the one man, one vote system.

"The sooner he accepts that the sooner he can start to serve the precinct," Neal said of Nordigan.

Nordigan said the defeated candidates should "try to mend fence."

Smith responds to Balen

Grayslake Mayor Marv Smith has responded to criticism from Lake County Board Member John Balen regarding a 10 foot wide strip land in the Rollins Savannah.

"John has made some rash comments when he started at the county board and it looks as if he is going out making irrational statements," Smith said.

During a Lake County Forest Preserve meeting, Balen ripped Grayslake for the action taken on the 10-foot wide strip.

"We are supposed to be cooperating. Grayslake has no respect for the county forest preserve," Balen said.

He said the land in question is "vital" to the Rollins Savannah. "We have put a lot of money in there," Balen said.

Balen urged the Forest Preserve to take Grayslake to court over the matter.

Meanwhile, Smith preferred to wait until he can review a Lake County Soil and Water Conservation Dist. report which concerns the 234 acre Pulte Home Corp. parcel.

Four Seasons phase 2 set to start in April

Ground will be broken in April on Phase II of Four Seasons of Sullivan Lake, an apartment complex in Lakemoor.

At the same time, finishing touches are being put on the swimming pool for use of residents of the 160 unit complex. Phase II will total 250 apartments.

Manager Dorothy Kennedy said work will continue on completion of the first nine holes of an 18 hole course with play expected to begin this fall. Opening of the course was delayed by work replacing the irrigation system, she said.

Kennedy discounted reports of tenant dissatisfaction at the new development, attributing complaints to "a couple" disgruntled tenants at the development of one and two bedroom apartments in various configurations plus two bedroom townhouses.

The manager said Four Seasons is experiencing 95 percent lease renewal. "We're pleased with the renter acceptance of Four Seasons," she added.

Kennedy affirmed a report of a renter's strike instigated by one resident. She attributed the strike threat to a "group of two."

Some tenants reportedly were dissatisfied that the pool and golf course didn't open last year along with complaints about burst pipes, lack of prompt snow removal and lax maintenance.

Four Seasons of Sullivan Lake is being developed by Robert Krilich Sr. The complex is on the Lake-McHenry county line and is served by the Fox Lake Fire Protection Dist., Big Hollow School and Grant High School.

Education at crossroads

by VIRGINIA PARK
Lakeland Newspapers

Everyone seems to agree that the public education of children in the United States is far behind that of many other countries in producing an educated person, or even one ready to hold a job in our business or industrial communities.

Everyone has been talking about this fact for years, yet nothing seems to come of it--with the exception of Dist. 125, Stevenson High School. I was more than pleased with its recent annual report, and am confident that my tax dollars are being well spent by that institution, if awards to faculty and students are any indication of excellence.

However, the prospect nationwide is dismal. So much so, in fact, that the Wall Street Journal produced a 36-page special report recently on education called "The Knowledge Gap." It asked the question, "Smarter Jobs, Dumber Workers. Is that America's Future?"

It seems that industry has to train new employees because they are unable to do their jobs, due to a lack of education. There is even a fancy name for this process--"remediation."

Out of 3,700 people who took an 85-question entry-level test offered by Southwestern Bell last year, only 800 managed to answer 55 questions correctly and pass.

A couple of statistics in the report caught my eye: 25 percent of U.S. students use calculators in math class, while only three percent of Japanese students use calculators in math class; an international study of 13-year-olds ranked U.S. students last in math proficiency, while South Korean students were first.

Do you think there just might be some important conclusions to be drawn from such information?

It seems quite obvious to little old me that calculators have no place in the classroom, a theory which many just ordinary people have held from the beginning of their introduction into the classroom.

However, such an idea is unacceptable to the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics who urge the use of calculators for routine computation and believe in teaching mathematical "concepts," assuming the children will figure out how to use them.

In direct contrast is another story about the Kumon (Japanese) method of teaching mathematics adopted in a little coal-mining town north of Birmingham, Ala. It offers a program of successful computation of many exercises in the belief that conceptual understanding will gradually accumulate.

The Kumon method embraces drill and practice, worksheets, long rows of calculations to be done by hand, heavy emphasis on precision, and much testing. And the children love it!

Though none of the fourth graders placed above first grade level when Kumon was introduced to them, by the end of the year they were multiplying and dividing three-digit numbers with ease and excitement.

The experience of achievement is inspiring and builds confidence. If the Kumon program is followed to the end, in time the student will be able to use differential and integral calculus.

There are some things in this world that do not change, such as two times two. It has been, is, and always will be four.

Learning the multiplication tables may seem boring, but it is good preparation for life which also has a few boring tasks to be done, and lots of rewarding experiences, too.

Victory of Eating Heart Smart

During American Heart Month, Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan sponsored a "Victory of Eating Heart Smart" promotion which saw over 30 restaurants in Northern Cook and Lake counties create dietitian-approved heart smart meals and added those selections to their regular menu. Whenever a customer ordered the meal, that restaurant would then be eligible to win over $200 of heart-smart groceries provided by Welton's County Market in Gurnee. The five winners and restaurant owners include: (front row from left) Maureen Bartholomew of Grayslake; Nancy Morici of Antioch; Francis Backs of Waukegan; Linda Mahoney of Waukegan; (center from left) Paul Poirer of Waukegan; Sue Politakis, R.D., assistant director of Dietary at Victory; Sandy Pike, owner of One Potato Two at Hawthorn Center; Jack Wheeler, manager of One Potato Two; Kathleen Zwolak, owner of the Landmark Restaurant in Antioch; (back row) Mike Gallagher, owner of Gallagher's Restaurant in Waukegan.

Getting there is half the fun for travel agent

'Europe is always a big tourist attraction, with Australia, Alaska and Egypt the newest entries in the travel sweepstakes.'

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

Being a travel agent and dealing with exotic and far-away places seems like a dream job. But that was not what Judy Falk had in mind when she answered an employment ad back in 1960 and found herself in the travel business.

"It was different then. There were only two or three travel agencies in Lake County and no special schooling was required," says Falk.

She worked for Crays Travel in Waukegan for five years, took an 11-year hiatus to take care of her daughter. She returned to Crays and later joined Barnloft Travel in Grayslake where she became a manager.

By 1989 she was one of the owners of the Barnloft agencies in Antioch and Gurnee.

"The business has really changed since 1960," says Falk. "There were no computers then. We did everything by phone and booked all phases of a trip ourselves, from hotels and planes, to car rentals."

"It's much faster paced now with airlines using a standardized ticket and the computers having the major input," adds Falk.

"I love the travel business because there are constant changes and the travel perks aren't bad either," she adds.

But its not all travel roses because many of the discounted trips that travel agents get are "fam-trips." They are fast-paced trips taken to familiarize the agents with places so they can pass that first-hand information on to their customers.

"You often cram in visits to every hotel in the area in the short time you're there," says Falk in describing the lack of glamor found on most travel agents' trips.

One of the most successful innovations in the travel business in the last few years are the travel video tapes which allow prospective travelers to view different places before they go instead of being unpleasantly surprised.

"This is the season for trips to Las Vegas and Florida, although these are two top travel destinations in any season," says Falk.

She points out the continuing popularity of Hawaii, adding that Ixtapa, Mexico is presently experiencing a travel boom.

"Europe is always a big tourist attraction, with Australia, Alaska and Egypt the newest entries in the travel sweepstakes," she adds.

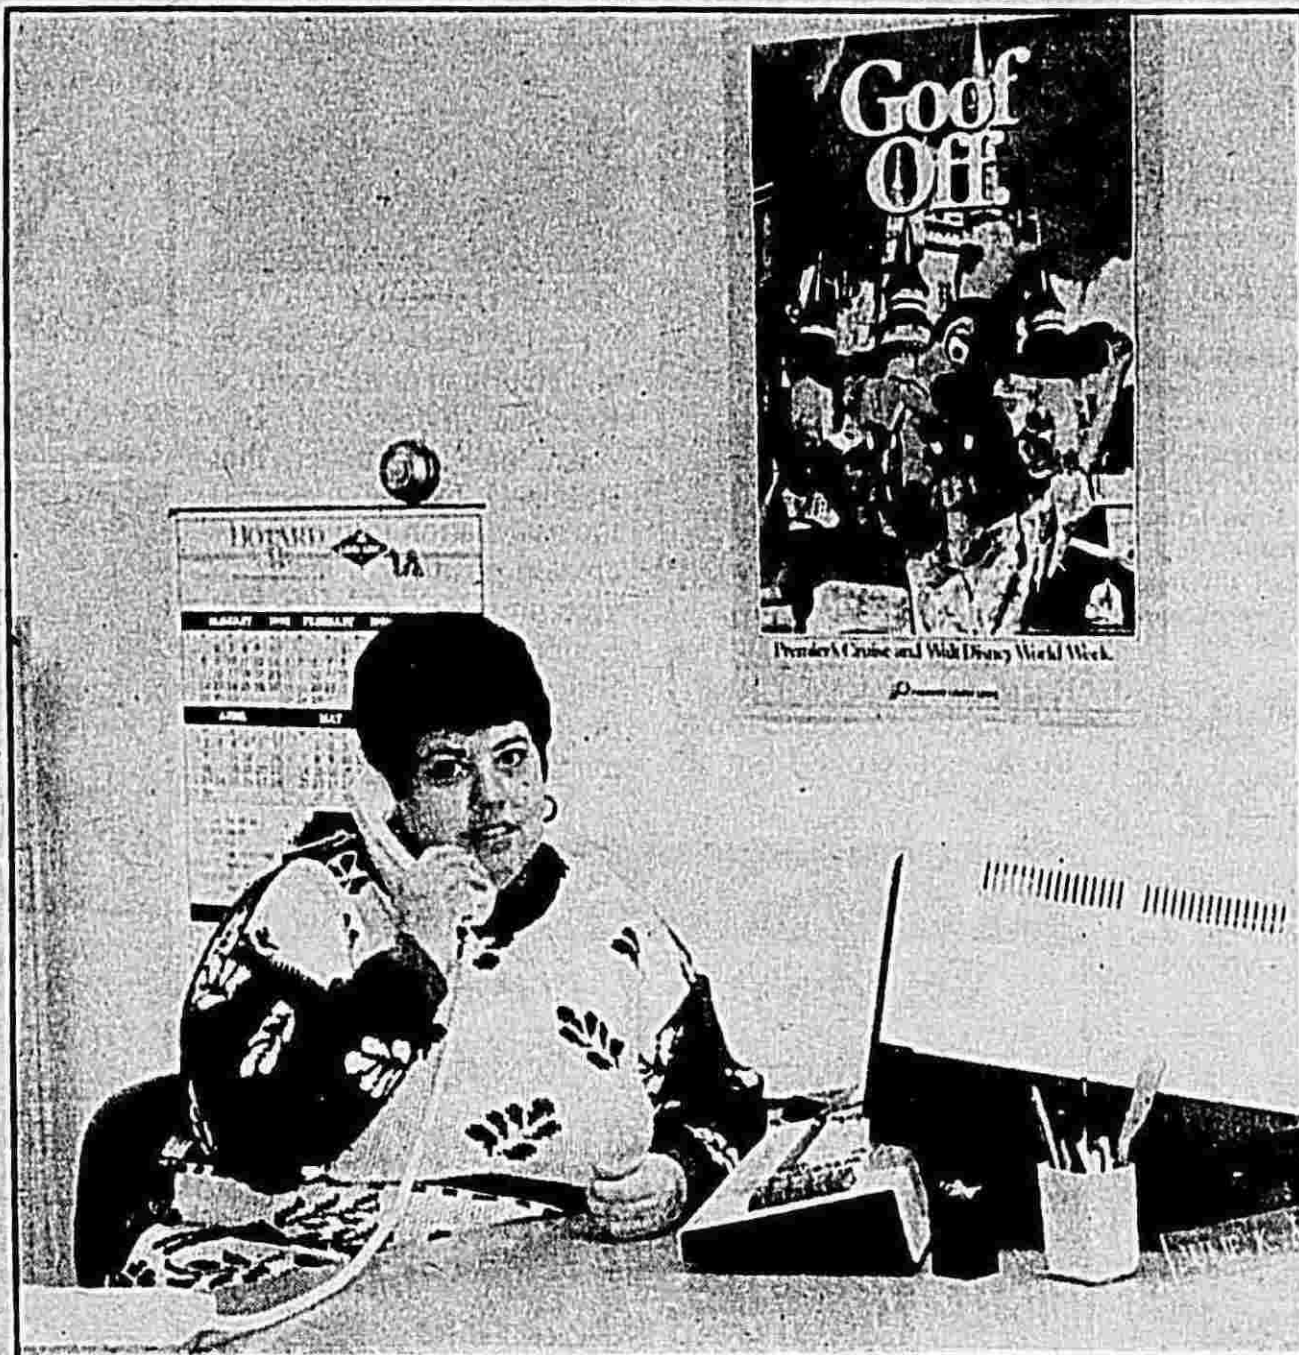

More in demand every year are trips to the Orient, especially Japan and Hong Kong, points out Falk, adding, "Years ago, people wanted escorted tours. Now most are happy with airplane/train/hotel packages where they can see the sights on their own."

She adds that the popularity of bus travel is on the upswing and cruises, especially to the Caribbean, are always popular.

For those interested in a travel profession, Falk says to enroll in the one-semester course at the College of Lake County and they're on their way.

"But make sure that you're interested in meeting lots of people, are into accuracy, can take a lot of pressure, stand a fast pace and, most of all, understand that this is not the highest paying job in the world," said Falk.

Some of the job stress is because a lot of unexpected things can happen in the travel business. For instance, a travel agent is often called upon to handle customer crises such as a traveler dying away from home.

Economic Development Comm. elects officers

Members of the Lake County Economic Development Commission held an election of officers for 1990 at its regular March meeting.

Re-elected chairman was James M. Wilmut of Gurnee, V.P. human resources, Bostrom Seating, Inc. Elected vice chairman was Harry Pettengill, manager of corporate facilities planning for Abbott Laboratories. Secretary is Ron Crawford, regional manager for Commonwealth Edison Co. Named to the executive committee were Harry Dolan, president of Dolan Assoc. of Bannockburn; Charles Johanns, vice president corporate relations Kemper Group Long Grove; Charles Isely III president of the Waukegan/Lake County Chamber of Commerce; and Charles deRivera, executive vice president First American Bank of Lake County.

Wilmut named Dolan chairman of the commission's publicity committee to succeed Pettengill, and deRivera will chair the ad hoc committee.

The membership heard a presentation by Russell Hamm, dean of Community Education & Contract Services at College of Lake County, and his staff on services offered through the division. Hamm said a major project of the staff is Work Force 2000. The focus of the program centers on the fact there are too few employees for the jobs available and the crunch will get worse as they move closer to the turn of the century. It is estimated that in the next nine years, the State of Illinois will require 770,000 additional workers.

One of the avenues for filling the vacancies, Hamm said, is older citizens and workers. However, they are often resistant to education and change. Therefore, the college assists employers in designing training systems which provide learning tools for these people.

Programs within the community education and contract services section at the college, are paid for through fees charged to business and industrial clients.

No tax dollars are allocated for these services, which include the business and training center, international business development program, job placement and a video program.

State Bank of Antioch President Randy Miles reports record earnings for the year ended Dec. 31, 1989. Miles states that pre-tax income was up over 42 percent to over $3 million and net income after taxes was up more than 30 percent to $2,141,000. Total assets increased from $157 million in 1988 to over $167 million at the end of 1989. Miles also reports that the bank's capital level has increased significantly over the past several years and has now reached a level which is about 75 percent higher than the minimum level required by bank regulators. "This is very significant," claims Miles, "in these days of S&L closings and publicity about troubled financial institutions. The State Bank of Antioch is proud to have achieved this financial strength and to be able to provide stable financial advice and services to the customers in our market area."

FINANCIAL FOCUS

reported by Brosius D'Arcy

Investing in mutual funds is an excellent way to build a nest egg. They enable you to invest when you have money available and allow you to reinvest gains and dividends so your money compounds. All this occurs at different times, and your shares are bought at different prices. When you need money, the fund sells enough shares at the current net asset value and mails you a check.

But which shares you sell could make a big difference in the taxes you pay. If you do not specify which shares to sell, the IRS's first in, first out rule applies. Shares you may have bought at a lower cost basis when you started investing will be sold for a large gain—and a large tax liability.

However, had you specified that the fund sell shares purchased at a higher cost basis, you would instead show a smaller gain or a loss, which could save you taxes.

Will the IRS accept this? No one will say for sure, but all agree this method should work. Remember, once you begin identifying shares you must keep accurate records so that the shares are not specified again for future sale.

Accurately determining the cost basis of your mutual fund shares requires some detail, but it may save you some money in taxes.

EYE CARE

News, Views & Questions About Your Eyes

By

Robert L. Epstein, M.D., Director

Illinois Center for Corrective Eye Surgery

QUESTION: Can color blindness be corrected?

ANSWER: It depends on the cause of the problem. There are two types of color blindness, hereditary and non-hereditary. Both involve elements in the back of the eye called rods and cones. Rods are responsible for night vision and seeing in dim conditions. The three types of cones—red, blue and green—are responsible for seeing in daylight and bright light and for color vision. Heredity controls each cone pigment and can alter or eliminate one of them, thereby affecting color perception.

This hereditary color blindness affects about eight percent of men and less than one percent of women from birth. There is no way to correct it.

For other people, eye problems occurring later in life, such as cataracts or retinal and optic nerve disease, can cause diminished color vision. If this occurs, an ophthalmologist should be consulted immediately. An eye examination can determine the problem so corrective treatment can be considered.

Fast relief for foot pain

Problem feet are the Achilles Heel of millions of Americans. Afflictions such as bunions, calluses, corns and ingrown toenails are just part of a long list of common foot ailments. Despite the pain and inconvenience that problem feet cause, people resist having them treated because traditional surgery with ordinary scalpels and large incisions requires hospitalization and several weeks spent by patients off their feet.

Ambulatory Foot Surgery (A.F.S.) provides an alternative for those who refuse to miss work or face a sizeable hospital bill. The technique enables patients to walk on a treated foot immediately after surgery. A.F.S. is made possible through the use of advanced equipment such as lasers, electronic scalpels and surgical instruments that can operate through incisions that are as small as an 1/8 of an inch.

The advantages of A.F.S. are numerous:

- Surgery is done on an out-patient basis, often during the time it would take for an extended lunch break.
- The average cost of an A.F.S. operation is $5,000 less than traditional hospital surgery.
- Local anesthesia is used, rather than general anesthesia, which reduces the risk of complications.
- The patient recovers at home or at work which is psychologically better than hospital recuperation.
- Healing time is reduced because of the limited size of the surgical incision.

Betty, a 91 year-old Libertyville woman, was a perfect candidate for Ambulatory Foot Surgery. After 71 years of working on her feet, she had developed painful bunions (the gradual dislocation of one of the foot bones). Her condition required surgery, but Betty had never missed a day of work and very to undergo treatment that would keep her in bed for more than a week. Through the use of the new techniques, she was able to have bunions corrected in just a few hours and report to work the same day.

Betty was treated by Dr. Richard Cowin in Libertyville, a local specialist in Ambulatory Foot Surgery. Dr. Cowin is critical of doctors who engage in what he described as surgical overkill.

"I have nothing against foot surgery that requires hospitalization, but it should be used only when absolutely necessary," says Dr. Cowin. "There are too many foot surgeons who hospitalize patients and recommend costly procedures for problems that could be treated in a doctor's office."

There are several reasons many podiatrists resist the new techniques. Lack of training is a factor. The equipment used is very complex and requires specialized knowledge to operate.

Financing is another problem since high technology instruments are very expensive (a surgical laser sells for $30,000). Without a high-volume practice, a doctor cannot justify the cost.

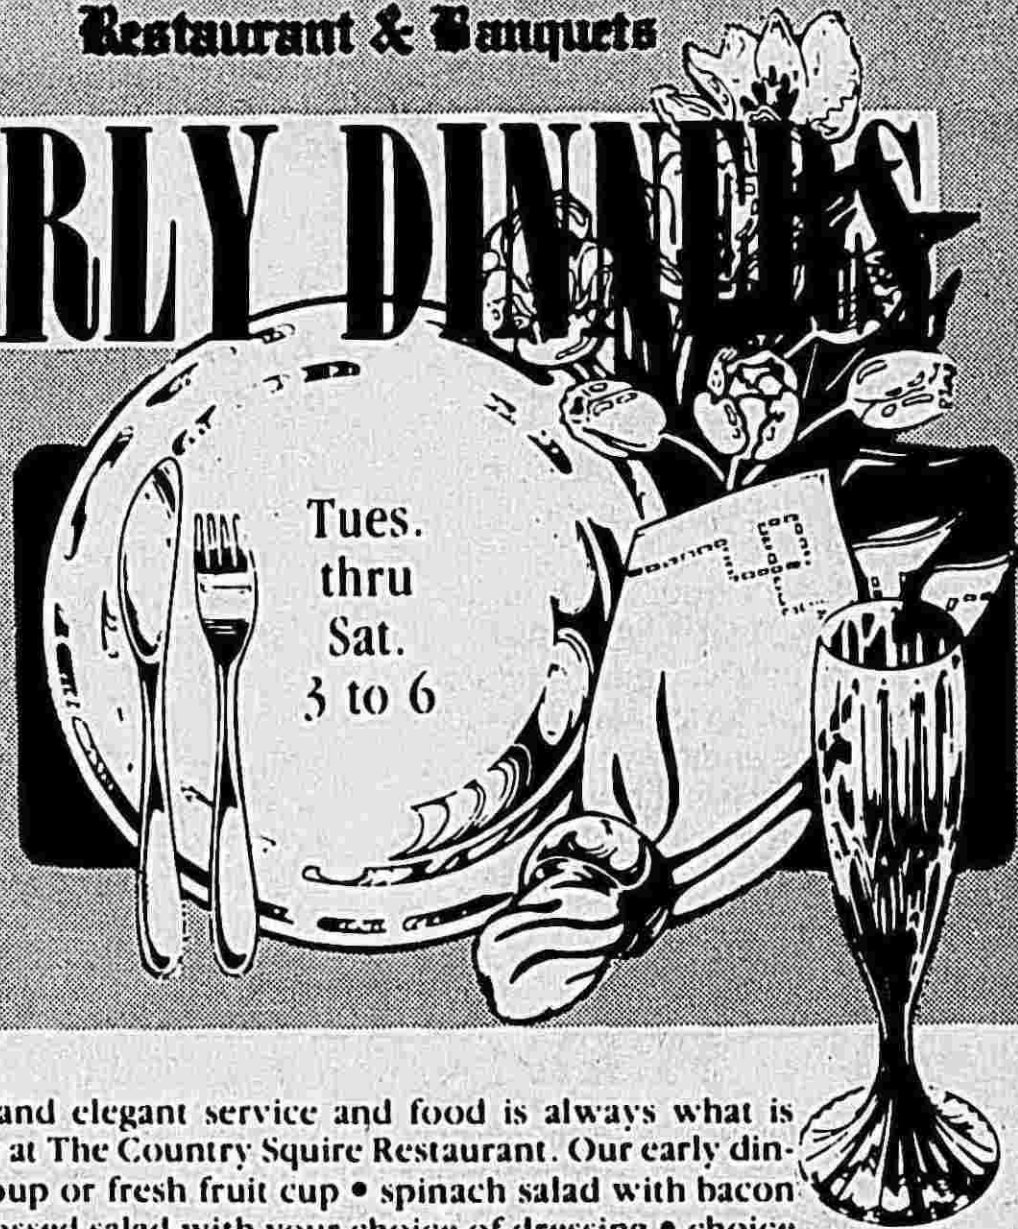

Resistance to change is a third factor. Doctors become comfortable with certain techniques and are critical of opposing schools of thought.

Ambulatory Foot Surgery, however, is not a panacea. A potential drawback is the risk of a major emergency such as shock that would be difficult to treat in a doctor's office.

Statistics show prevalence of arthritis

New statistics, which for the first time provide state-by-state prevalence figures, were released by the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and show that 1,663,000 people in Illinois are affected by arthritis, reports the Arthritis Foundation's Illinois Chapter.

The recently completed analysis shows that fully 14.6 percent of the state's population report they have some form of arthritis. The foundation notes that the high prevalence of arthritis among older persons combined with the aging of the population will mean that arthritis conditions and associated disabilities can be expected to increase in the future.

"These new statistics confirm how widespread the impact of arthritis is in Illinois and show the need for the Arthritis Foundation's continuing sponsorship of research, and patient services in our area," said Fred Dixon, Illinois Chapter executive director. Particularly troublesome among the new statistics is that nationwide approximately six million people who think they have arthritis have not sought any medical treatment for the condition.

"This report confirms our suspicions that many people think they can treat arthritis themselves. While they put off seeing a doctor, irreversible joint damage may be taking place-joint damage that might have been prevented or delayed with proper care," Dixon said.

According to the Arthritis Foundation, the warning signs of arthritis include:

- Swelling in one or more joints
- Early morning stiffness
- Recurring pain or tenderness in any joint
- Inability to move a joint normally
- Obvious redness and warmth in a joint
- Unexplained weight loss, fever, or weakness combined with joint pain.
- Symptoms such as these that last for more than two weeks.

"There are things people can do to help their arthritis. The Arthritis Foundation has a variety of programs and services available and can provide a list of local arthritis specialists. If people who think they have arthritis can call and get the information needed," Dixon said. The phone number for the Arthritis Foundation, Illinois Chapter is (312)782-1367 or 1(800)572-2397.

The Arthritis Foundation is the source of help and hope for an estimated 37 million Americans who have arthritis. The foundation supports research to find the cures and preventions of arthritis diseases and seeks to improve the quality of life for those affected by arthritis.

Award grant to day care

Waukegan Adult Day Health Services, the adult day care program affiliated with Victory Memorial Hospital and housed in the Lake County Family YMCA complex, has been awarded a grant totaling as much as $18,000 by the Waukegan Twp. Senior Service Committee. Funds received are based on hours of service per adult client and will be used to help defray the operating costs of the center.

"The need for a community-based program designed to meet the special requirements of the older adult, including those with fixed incomes who might otherwise have difficulty living independently, prompted Victory Hospital to initiate this adult day care program in the Fall of 1987," said Sandra Cech, director of the center.

Waukegan Adult Day Health Services is one of only six adult day care centers in Lake County.

Film Review

For awhile it looked like Richard Geer's career was going to continue on the steady downhill slide it had been on since "Officer and a Gentleman."

Then along came "Internal Affairs," which punched new life into it. Last week, Geer's newest flick opened and this time it's a comedy/love story called "Pretty Woman."

Despite a lightweight script (tycoon picks up a prostitute and they fall in love), Geer's new silver-haired sex appeal and the mere presence of Academy Award nominee Julia Roberts (Geer! She's a gorgeous one!), and her knack for comedy, make this an enjoyable bit of romantic fluff with the extra added attraction of a good laugh or two.

Give this one 3.5 stars out of five for its "sigh" appeal.

Academy Awards

Hey! We didn't do too badly on our Academy Awards predictions made in last week's column. Four-and-one-half out of six is a respectable score.

We were right on predicting "Driving Miss Daisy" would be the best pic and star Jessica Tandy, best actress. We also called the best supporting actor award for Denzel Washington and we were right on target in predicting Oliver Stone would get best directing accolades for "Born of the Fourth of July."

We had the cinematography award a toss-up between "The Abyss" (which took a few awards) and "Glory," which is the winner.

We goofed when we said that Tom Cruise would be named the best actor. That went to Daniel Day-Lewis for "My Left Foot."

And although we said that Brenda Fricker from "Foot" should be named best supporting actress, we did say that we thought Angelica Houston would get it for "Enemies, a Love Story."

Mom Likes To Cook

By Randee Rlan

Mmmm...Cookies!

I expect that reminiscing about cookies calls forth warm and happy memories for you just as it does for me. For many, those earliest recollections of 'helping' in the kitchen are associated with making a batch of cookie dough with mom. I'm pleased to say my daughter has started just that way.

An interesting fact about cookies: the first historic record of cookies was their use in test cakes. A small amount of cake batter was baked to test the oven temperature. The name cookie is derived from the Dutch work "koekje" meaning "little cake." So there...

- 1/2 tsp. vanilla

Historic Princeton

by JIM WARNKEN

PRESIDENT, NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

It was home to Albert Einstein and Grover Cleveland. Woodrow Wilson had a couple of houses there. Bet you didn't know Princeton, New Jersey, was even our nation's capital for a few months back in 1783.

Almost by accident I found myself in Princeton last week. I was returning from a tour of Atlantic City (next week's column) and thought I would spend the night in Philadelphia before flying home from Newark the next day. Since visiting Boston I have become interested in our country's history and thought, "Hey the Liberty Bell's there." Got to be some history in Philadelphia.

Well, maybe I didn't give Philadelphia a chance, but after seeing the Liberty Bell and Freedom Hall I chose to move on.

Princeton appeared to be in the right direction, so I headed out on Rt. 95.

In the Princeton area the houses became very impressive. Sure they're big and expensive, but more than that they had an air of old world class about them.

I found a place called the Nassau Inn right in the center of town. This 223-year-old inn had once hosted signers of the Declaration of Independence. Twentieth century convenience has been added but the inn still retains a feeling of colonial days. I especially appreciated the two homemade chocolate chunk cookies left on my pillow at night.

Princeton itself is steeped in history, though you will find few signs pointing this out to the tourist. It is best to take a walking tour offered by the university.

By the way, Albert Einstein's house is at 112 Mercer St. as pointed out to me by his neighbor whose father once played the violin in the local orchestra with Mr. Einstein.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Generously grease bottom only of 13x9 inch pan. In small bowl, blend all filling ingredients; beat at medium speed until smooth; about 1 minute. Set aside. In large bowl, combine all brownie ingredients; beat 50 strokes with a spoon. Spread half of batter in prepared pan. Pour cream cheese mixture over batter, spreading to cover. Place spoonfuls of remaining batter on top of cream cheese. Marble by pulling knife through batter in wide curves, then turn pan and repeat.

Bake at 350 degrees for 30 to 35 minutes. Do not overbake. Cool; for ease in cutting, refrigerate at least one hour. Cover tightly and store in refrigerator.

Makes 36 bars.

Sunshine lemon bars

Good spring-zesty bar. My version of the ever-popular, melt-in-your-mouth lemon cookie bar.

Crust

- 2 cups flour
- 1/2 cup powdered sugar
- 1 cup butter, softened

Filling

- 4 eggs, slightly beaten
- 2 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup flour
- 1 tsp. baking powder
- 1/4 cup lemon juice

Glaze

- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 2 to 3 Tbl. lemon juice

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. In large bowl, combine 2 cups flour, 1/2 cups powdered sugar and butter at low speed until crumbly. Press mixture evenly in bottom of ungreased 13x9 inch pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 to 30 minutes or until light golden brown.

In large bowl, combine eggs, sugar, 1/4 cup flour and baking powder; blend well. Stir in lemon juice. Pour mixture over warm crust. Return to oven and bake 25 to 30 minutes or until top is light golden brown. Cool completely.

Fowler, 4th guest conductor to appear with symphony

Under the baton of Ray Fowler, the Waukegan Symphony Orchestra will present the Tenth Annual Young Artist's Competition on Saturday, April 7 at 8 p.m. at Waukegan West High School, 2325 Brookside Ave. The three finalists who will compete for first place are Maggie Cheng of Northbrook, Mona Marie Knock of Chicago and Ikuko Nagasaka of Northbrook.

Fowler has chosen to perform Leonard Bernstein's Overture to "West Side Story" and Prokofiev's "Romeo and Juliet, Suite No. 1." Cheng, Knock and Nagasaka were chosen from 34 students who auditioned on Feb. 3 and 4 at the first phase of the competition. Cheng will play the first movement of Prokofiev's "Piano Concerto No. 1 Opus 10."

Performing on the violin, Knock will play the first movement of Saint-Saens' "Concerto No. 3 in B minor, Opus 61." Magasaka will perform the first "Piano Concerto, Opus 38."

Maestro Fowler has been a moving force in the development of the highly regarded Prince George's Philharmonic in the Washington D.C. area.

Concurrent with this position, he is music director and conductor of the Ohio Valley Symphony and the Charlottesville/Albemarle (Virginia) Youth Orchestra.

Since May, when the Symphony Board announced the opening for orchestra director of the Waukegan Symphony Orchestra, a search committee, made up of orchestra and board members, has reviewed 137 applications. Forty-seven applicants were invited to submit additional information and by mid-August the number of prospects was narrowed to 15, from which group the Symphony Advisory Board chose five guest conductors to lead the Waukegan Symphony Orchestra in the 1989-90 season.

Tickets for the concert are $10 for adults and $5 for students, senior citizens and military personnel. They are available from the Jack Benny Center for the Arts in Bowen Park in Waukegan or can be charged over the phone by calling (708)360-4742.

Lake County At A Glance

Impact fees

LINDENHURST—The Lindenhurst Village Board plans to ask the library, fire, and possibly school districts to put a money figure on the additional cost of providing services to new developments until which time the developments are on village tax rolls.

Eyes new building

PRAIRIE VIEW—With the successful referendum passage to issue $6.9 million in building bonds, Vernon Area Library officials are proceeding with plans to build a 47,000 square-foot facility. The new building is needed to ease overcrowding of the existing facility at 23184 N. Indian Creek Rd. Library officials are negotiating with a property owner for an 8.5-acre parcel located adjacent to the library site.

Depot idea mulled

MUNDELEIN—Site of a prospective commuter railroad station is under way. Most likely location is near Winchester Rd. and Rte. 45 where an industrial complex is starting to take shape. Village officials say the NORTTRAN line promoters or state will have to pay for the site and building. Mundelein will not do so because commuters spent little time or money in a community.

Hook-up

LAKE VILLA—The Lakes Region Sanitary Dist. said it "will not be able to reach an agreement that will be mutually acceptable to both government agencies" regarding Lake Villa's proposed hook-up to the district's sewer system.

Eye park district

ANTIOCH—Hoping to put the creation of an Antioch Parks Dist. on the November ballot, the parks committee is inviting interested village and township residents to participate with the committee in the formation of the district. If a park district is ultimately created in Antioch, it will be a separate taxing body and supported by tax revenues. The park district will also be able to tap available grant monies for additional funding. As a department of the village, the parks department does not qualify for such funding. With plans for the inclusion of a larger area than just the village in the proposed park district, committee members have been advised that a new park district would not be that much more costly and better services would be gained.

Golf course plan

ZION—A proposal to fund a $5,000 preliminary design for an 18-hole golf course near Zion has been approved by two committees of the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. The district's Development and Golf Committees met in joint session to review the need for a new golf course on the 227-acre site now owned by the district in the northeast corner of Benton Twp. near Zion. The $5,000 study fee will be developed by using a $2,500 allocation from each of the two existing golf courses' revenue income. The committees expect to review the architect's recommendations in 30 days.

RIFs bring debate

GRAYSLAKE—Grayslake Community High School and the Grayslake Education Assn. (GEA) had what amounted to a five-hour skirmish during the GCHS Board of Education meeting. At issue was Reduction-In-Force (RIF) notices, subcontracting of bus service and restructuring of Grayslake High's departments into divisions. In the end, five teachers were sent RIF notices, the subcontracting of buses was withdrawn and the restructuring was delayed a year until after the present negotiation for a new contract is completed. The teachers who received RIF notices are: Jude La Francis, Mike Patrick, Steve Moline, Gary Olson and Paula Palmer.

Parade of Homes

LONG GROVE—Glenstone, a community of 24 homesites in Long Grove, has been selected as the location for the 1990 Parade of Homes running Aug. 11 through Sept. 3 at the 79-acre site, Cuba Rd., a half mile east of S. Krueger Rd. Eight builders already have commitments and one or two more may be added, according to Homebuilders Assn. of Greater Chicago. Homes in this year's Parade will be in the $400,000 to $600,000 range.

Gorrell to preside

WAUKEGAN—Herbert L. Gorrell of Lake Bluff, nominee of the Solidarity Party for Congress from the 10th Dist., will preside at a convention at 8 p.m. Monday, April 2, at Homer Dahlinger Post American Legion, 501 Washington St., Waukegan. Gorrell candidates for county office, County Board and precinct committee posts will be selected. This is the first Lake County convention of the Solidarity Party.

OK cutbacks

GURNEE—Officials of Gurnee Dist. 56 were forced to confront some grim realities at last week's board meeting, because of the rejection at the polls of their bid for tax increases. Despite what Gurnee Dist. 56 School Board of Education President Mike Anderson termed "a Herculean effort" by the "Friends of Children", a citizens committee that lobbied for passage, the education fund referendum was defeated 1,605 to 1,423 and the building bond issue lost 1,545 to 1,494.

GOP office closed

LIBERTYVILLE—Lake County Republican headquarters, the first in the history of the party outside of Waukegan, closed for good this week. Following mixed success in first-ever primary endorsements and a campaign financed by special interests, the office was closed. The former auto dealership will be razed in the coming weeks. GOP spokesman say it is doubtful another office of its type will be established for the November election.

Staff released

FOX LAKE—Following the third consecutive defeat of a tax increase referendum, the board of education of financially troubled Lotus School voted to dismiss 22 certificated and support personnel at the end of the current term. Supt. Arthur Smejkal said the reduction in force (RIF) action was a procedure to set the stage for bargaining April 2 with the teachers' union which is opposing the board's plan to transfer junior high students to Fox Lake School as an economy measure. Smejkal said he hopes agreement can be reached so required personnel can be rehired while the district of 150 students works on solving funding difficulties.

CLC approves tuition hike

At its regular March meeting, the College of Lake County Board of Trustees approved a tuition rate increase of $1 per-credit-hour effective with the fall, 1990 semester. This brings the total per-credit-hour tuition to $32.10. Students also pay a $1 per-credit-hour activity fee.

CLC's current tuition rate is slightly higher than the average tuition rate at Illinois community colleges, currently at $29.90 per-credit-hour. The increase for fall, 1990 represents a 3.2 percent jump over the previous rate. CLC administrators expect tuition rates across the country will increase by approximately 5.5 percent.

Student Trustee Roger Fisher reported to the board that the administration had reviewed the need for a tuition increase with the Student Senate and that students had voted on March 14 to endorse the $1 increase. The board anticipates that the revenue as a result of the tuition increase will be approximately $160,000 over the next year. Trustees have asked the administration to formulate a joint plan with students that would use $100,000 of that revenue to finance strategies to broaden student accessibility to the college.

Water agency work begins with new tax

Construction on Lake County's largest public works project of the decade moves into high gear next month. That is when work will begin on a new pumping station in Lake Bluff that will take Lake Michigan water to a dozen Lake County communities by spring 1992.

Opened last week were bids for a pumping station in Lake Bluff. The low apparent bidder is J.H. Pomeroy of Roselle with a price of $9.8 million. This is 25 percent under the estimated $13 million for the project, which will reduce taxes those in the service area approved in March 1988. Ten bids ranged to a high of $13.5 million.

This was the first of nine construction bids to be awarded in coming months. Scheduled for opening Thursday, April 16, are bids for a water treatment plant on 24 acres on Rte. 176 between Rte. 41 and Green Bay Rd. It will purify 30 millions gallons of water daily with the capability of expansion to 40 million gallons daily.

In late summer or fall bids will be opened for construction of the transmission lines to serve the member communities of the Central Lake County Joint Action Water Agency.

Served will be Grayslake, Gurnee, Lake Bluff, Libertyville, Mundelein, Round Lake, Round Lake Beach, Round Lake Heights, Round Lake Park and Lake County, which in turn, will serve Vernon Hills and the unincorporated areas of Knollwood and Wildwood.

Lake Zurich is seen as a potential customer sometime in the next few years.

The 112,000 residents of the member communities will be served by 32 miles of water main ranging in size from 16 to 48 inches.

Voters in those communities approved $35 million in general obligation bonds in March 1988. Earlier this month the water agency decided to levy only 10 cents per $100 of the originally approved 36-cent rate. This tax will appear for the first time on bills to be received in May.

The lower rate was made possible because of an increase in area property values.

A previously approved $55 million revenue bond issue to further finance construction will be repaid from water system revenues starting when service begins in 1992. The remaining costs of the project will be paid by user fees. At this point only a small increase is projected beyond what users are already paying.

Lexington's Grayslake project clears planners

Lexington Homes plan for a 280 acre subdivision in Grayslake won a vote of confidence Tuesday night.

The Grayslake Plan Commission voted to recommend to the plats and subs committee of the village board to accept the general development plan for the area as well as R-1 zoning.

Kevin Bogard of Lexington Homes opened the developers' presentation by explaining the developers' donation agreement reached between Lexington and neighboring Pulte Homes' subdivision. He said the agreement calls for $6.2 million in donations, highlighted by 52 acres to be donated for use by Grayslake Community High School and Grayslake Dist. 46 as well as land for a park site. Some $3,300,000 of the agreement will come from Lexington.

Land planner Pat Williams said the boundaries are Shorewood Dr. on the north, Rte. 83 on the northeast, Lake Ave. to the east. Highway access will come from Rte. 83.

Williams said the northern portion of the mixed use development will be the larger lot sizes.

"There will be distinctly different types of residential uses in three areas of single family," Williams said. The types will be called Homestead, Heritage and Signature.

"There will be some 877 units in total with a density of 3.11 units per acre.

The lot sizes range from 8,500 square feet to 10,000 square feet. In addition to the residential uses, there will also be about four acres of commercial and another section for multi-family on 25.6 acres with 201 units.

Doug Buster, director of product design and development, said there will be 19 different floor plans. "We are trying to bring an interesting product line," he said.

Commission member Pat Anderson asked about screening various neighbors.

"We would prefer that it not be a requirement," Borgord said.

Anderson said neighbor

Renwood Golf Course officials are concerned about vandalism.

Day care topic of forum

The College of Lake County in Grayslake will host a program on the "Day Care Dilemma: Who Should be Responsible for the Children?"

The open forum for Lake County residents will be held Saturday, April 7 at 12:30 p.m. at the CLC auditorium.

The results of the forum, part of the national issues forums, will be forwarded to local, state and federal policy makers.

Forum participants need to register in advance through the CLC Activities Office, (708) 223-6601, ext. 300. The $5 registration fee includes a book and refreshments.

Town Meeting

A town meeting will be held for all residents, city, village and township officials, and service agencies in Lake County to discuss the need for a Lake County Center for Independent Living. The meeting will be held on Thursday, March 29 at 7:00 at the College of Lake County, Main Auditorium, Grayslake.

Census Day is April 1

The 1990 Decennial Census is coming soon. On March 23, each household received from the U.S. Bureau of the Census a questionnaire in the mail. Most households were asked to respond to only 14 basic questions concerning age, race, gender, the number of people that live in the household, and housing value or rent. A few households were asked to respond to an additional 45 questions including education, means of travel to work, and income. The questionnaire should be returned through the mail in a provided postage-paid envelope to the Census Bureau on or very soon after April 1.

It is important that every household in the Lakeland community participate in the census. The total number of people that are counted influences not only the number of voices that represent the various communities in Washington and Springfield, but also the amount of tax dollars that are returned to the community by the federal and state governments.

It should not take long to fill out the questionnaire. Even the longer version of the questionnaire should take an average of only 40 minutes. By law responses are absolutely confidential for 72 years! Only Census Bureau staff see the individual questionnaire. There really is no possibility for anyone else, including the IRS, the FBI, Immigration, the tax assessor, or welfare officials, to identify individual respondents or households.

Blood Drive

On Wednesday, April 4, College of Lake County will sponsor a community blood drive. The drive will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Orange Court at the school, 19351 W. Washington, Grayslake. Blood drive coordinator Jackie Hassett, R.N., asks eligible donors to stop in and donate.

Plant expansion taking shape

by BILL SCHROEDER
Lakeland Newspapers

Steadily, the $25 million expansion of the North West Regional Sanitary system sewage treatment works that will double capacity is taking shape.

Randy Alcorn, resident engineer for Donohue & Assoc., reported that the project designed to expand service to 80,000 persons in the northwest sector of Lake County is 11 percent complete.

"We're on schedule," Alcorn reported to village officials of Fox Lake where the treatment plant is located.

The system serves residents of Fox Lake, Ingleside, the entire Round Lake area, customers of the Lakes Region Sanitary Dist. and Lake Villa.

So far 15 percent of $13,174,000 in grant monies have been expended and eight percent or $959,325 of a $12 million loan have been expended, Alcorn said.

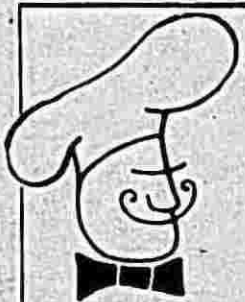

The project, which includes installation of a tricky filter system to replace failed RVC technology, is designed to be completed in two phases, Phase I by July, 1991, and Phase II by June 31, 1992.

New equipment also will eliminate odors emitted by the plant that has been operating over capacity for more than three years.

Alcorn said a former dump on the site at Sayton and Rollins Rds. has been removed and backfilled with structural material. All other unsuitable soil on the more than 20 acre site has been removed and backfilled with granular material.

A total of 1,100 cubic yards of concrete was poured Wednesday on the first aeration tank.

Work officially began last Oct. 27.

"She's always had a mind of her own..."

that's one of the reasons I love my wife. So today, when she called me at the office and said she wants to pre-plan our funerals, I wasn't surprised. Besides, now that I think about it, it's a good idea. I'll feel better knowing the kids won't have to worry about details... or the expenses!"

CARSON

The thoughtfully designed Carson offers good looks on the outside and liveability on the inside. This union of class and coziness makes this three-bedroom, two-bath home perfect for a starting family or a retired couple. Unlike many designs, two garage doors don't dominate the view from the street. With this home, the two-car garage is one the side of the house, far from view. What a visitor does see from the street are banks of windows and multi-leveled gables that offer depth to this design. On the inside, the Carson is like an Oreo cookie standing on end - bedrooms on both sides and a formal entertainment area in the center whose lines of sight extend into the dining room. A gourmet kitchen with a butcher block island stands ready for any rank of chef, from rookie to culinary expert. When the dishes are done, the cook can take a respite in the sun-dappled nook. At the end of the day the masters of the house can retire to their own private wing. Here, a walk-in closet and a private bathroom help take the edge off the day. Two guests bedrooms and a separate bathroom anchor the other side of this house. For a study plan of the CARSON (209-51), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2307, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

By Joyce Jillson

Weekly Tip: Big news is Monday's new moon in Aries. A start date if there ever was one!

Aries (March 21-April 19) Personal affirmations should be made and start projects, make contact with whomever you want to be part of plans and projects.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) Time to stop and smell the roses. Help a friend out of tight spot today.

Gemini (May 21-June 21) This week, get your feet wet with group associations that can advance personal ambitions.

Cancer (June 22-July 22) Monday's new moon falls in your career house, so set those moves in motion! Ignore a partner's fears.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22) Travel or education plans in back of your mind? Firm them up on Monday. Give the boss plenty of good input.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Compromises made last month have brought you and spouse or partner to fine terms; stay that way by not discussing money until Tuesday.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) New moon in partnership house on Monday can be a start date for a business alliance. Unusual romantic offer on Wednesday.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21) Clean closets and discard outmoded wardrobe items in honor of new moon. And renew that health club membership.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Start original projects on this new moon, from babies to businesses. Organize file cabinets and other details.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Stop putting off those changes at home, Monday is auspicious start date for previously planned changes.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Car purchase may accompany new moon vibes; a red one is most tempting. An encounter with a woman makes you stop and think.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20) If you face cost-of-living vs. earned income facts the new moon on Monday can take you to the top.

If You Were Born This Week

Aries is the fast-breaking starter. Many new beginnings with only some endings. Make home and family life solid through July.

Party chairman

(Continued from page 3) University of Chicago charities. She promised to do just the opposite of all the things Neal did many perceive as wrong.

Neal's downfall started one year ago when he lost a re-election bid for Newport Twp. supervisor. His office telephone went unanswered by constituents while he served as the governor's appointee on the Illinois

Tollway Authority and as Dist. 3 County Board members.

Neal gave the job of committeeman the same, callous treatment.

He alienated party members across the county in February with the opening of the first Lake County Republican headquarters outside Waukegan. The location was restricted to "endorsed" candidates. In areas where Neal was unable to engineer the endorsements, he made his own selections.

Salute Lake County Champs

The winter sports equipment has been locked up for a few weeks now and the practices, games and post-season contests are but a memory for Lake County sports teams.

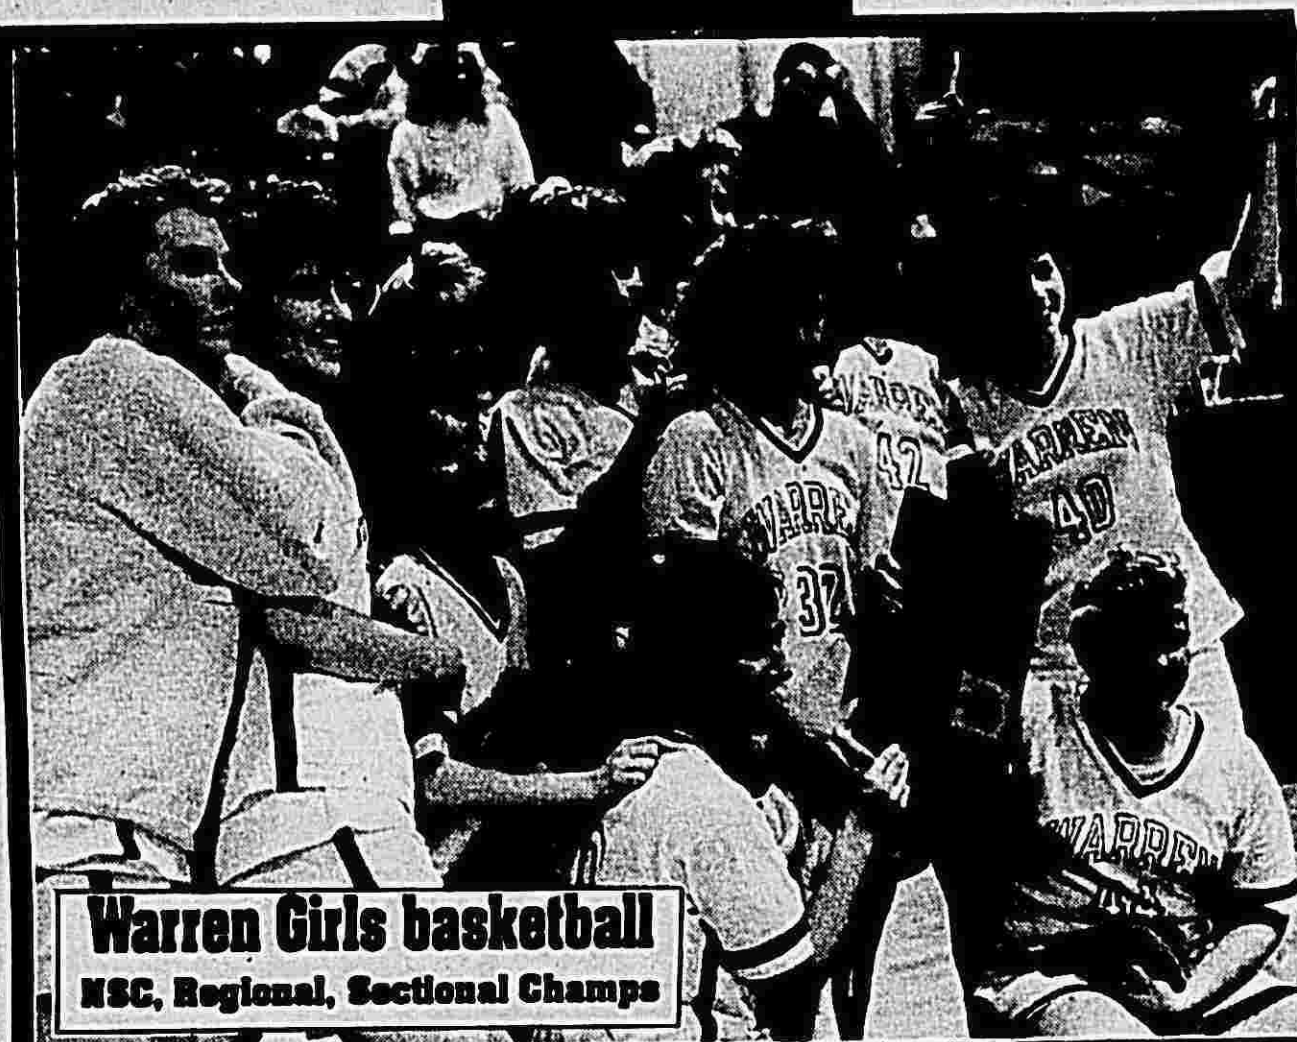

It was a successful one for the locals, as several league and regional championships were garnered. Photos by Steve Peterson, Joe Shuman and Steve Young.

Fiesta Palace will host six bout boxing show

George Martinez, who heads Viento Productions, said, "I was elated that our first pro boxing show was received so well by Waukegan boxing fans. Once again I plan to do more of the same by showcasing young up and comers in exciting, well-matched bouts." Viento Productions' next show will be held March 30 at the Fiesta Palace, 202 N. Genesee.

Highlighting the card in a 6-round bout will be lightweight Jorge Baeza (7-4) from Mexico vs. Randy Reedy of Evansville. "Although Baeza lost in his last outing to Terry Ford (3-1), he is determined to make amends," according to his coach, Poncho Arenas. Chicago's junior middleweight, Anthony Ivory (5-1) will be back on this card, after a second round KO over John Dillard last month. His opponent is Terry Parham of Benton Harbor. In what should be the most exciting bout on the card, Angel Rodriguez (14-4-1) of Puerto Rico, faces Terry Ford of Racine. Rodriguez is new on the American boxing scene and has his new work cut out for him when he faces Ford, Baeza's nemesis.

Rounding out the six-bout card will be Jose Varella (1-3) of Mexico vs. Jose Luis Rivera from Puerto Rico in his first pro fight. Also featured on the card is two-time golden Glove champion Rodney Wilson (7-4) and Waukegan's own Aaron Shickley in his first pro bout.

Doors open at 6 p.m. and the show begins at 8 p.m. Ticket prices are balcony $15, general admission $20 and ringside $25. Call (708)623-8080 for ticket information.

State finals next for two free-throw shooters

Lake County residents fared well during Knights of Columbus regional free-throw shooting competition.

Two advanced to the state finals in Springfield. Eileen Cunnie of Lake Zurich, a 13-year-old, qualified. She is a student at St. Francis de Sales, which is represented by Dist. 3 of the Knights.

The second state qualifier was 14-year-old Kellie Karl of Libertyville. She attends St. Joseph's in Libertyville.

Jenny Gillotti of Lake Zurich won second place; Nichole Kleber of Abor Vista tied for second in the 10-year-old age group; Kristin Miner of Third Lake took third place in the 11-year-old age bracket.

Katie Thill of Lake Zurich was third out of 22 shooters in the 12-year-old age group. Bridgette Icki was fourth from Lake Villa. Angela Barbon, was a fifth place finisher at St. Patrick School.

Nathan Barbosa was fourth among 10-year-olds; Antonio Williams was third in 11-year-olds; Mike Losch, a St. Patrick student, was third among 12-year-olds; Mike Lirre was third among 13-year-olds and Curt Salata was fourth among 14-year olds.

Coach leads team to Wisconsin playoffs

by JOSEPH SOULAK
Lakeland Newspapers

While most Illinois basketball eyes were focused on the season-ending basketball tournament in Champaign, those of a Grayslake couple and their friends were on the Wisconsin playoffs taking place the same day at the University of Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Chan Parker of Belvidere Rd., Grayslake, were in Madison, Wi., for the three-day state cage playoffs ending March 17. They were there to cheer for their son and his team, the Appleton East Patriots. For the second time in four years under Ron Parker's guidance, the team made it to the championship game. Like the 1986 team, this year's 22-3 team finished as runners-up.

Appleton lost 70-63 to Milwaukee Washington.

Ranked fifth in the Class A state basketball poll, Appleton held its own throughout the game until the closing seconds. Parker said the opposing team's quickness and aggressive style of play made the difference.

Give Yourself a Raise with Home Federal's New JUMP UP CD

Back by Popular Demand!

8%

That's only the beginning!

Normally, buying a CD often means guessing whether rates are going up or down. Few investors want to tie up funds if rates will be going up in a month or so.

Home Federal has a solution and it's called the Jump Up CD. If rates rise, you can tell us to jump your rate — up to one full percent!

When you open a Jump Up CD, you'll earn our already high rate on a 14-month CD. And you'll receive a coupon redeemable for an even higher rate — up to one full point — anytime our rates rise to that point during the life of the CD. For example, if our 14-month rate increases 1/2%, you may redeem your coupon for an extra 1/2% or you may wait until the rates rise even higher. Whenever you act, you'll receive the higher rate until maturity.

It's our way of ensuring that even if interest rates move up, you'll still receive an outstanding rate.

Jump Up CDs may be opened with as little as $2500. Visit any Home Federal office for details or call 244-0880 for further information.

USA vs. Canada

International wrestling bouts coming to CLC

Wrestling fans will be able to witness international competition when the College of Lake County hosts a Canadian vs. U.S.A. World Dual April 3.

"This is the first time we have tried to organize something like this," CLC wrestling Coach Stan Pasiewicz said. A local organizing committee consisting of CLC representatives and coaches Steve Kushner of Grayslake, Ted DeRousse of Antioch, Leno Martinez of Stevenson and Dale Eggert of Libertyville worked on the details.

The Lake County Wrestling club members will compete in preliminary matches prior to the dual. The youngsters' matches will include members from Antioch Upper Grade, Highland Park Little Giants and the Round Lake Spartans wrestling clubs.

The preliminary bouts will pit: Kareem Spillman of Waukegan West (22-12) vs. Eric Browne of Mundelein (sectional qualifier); Mike Kearby of Grayslake (freshman sectional qualifier) vs. Chris Tointon (Antioch, junior sectional qualifier); Jerry Follett of Stevenson (senior, 37-4 and sectional qualifier and 1989 State Freestyle Champion) vs.

of Woodstock (junior, 40-5, fourth in state and Cadet National Freestyle Placewinner); Jeff Walls of Grayslake (senior, 28-2, fifth in state) vs. Brian Fischer of Libertyville (senior, 31-10-1, state qualifier); Ryan Geist of Grayslake (senior, 43-2, fifth in state) vs. Al Strobl of Lake Zurich (sophomore, 43-5, fifth in state).

Other bouts include: Iain Berger of Libertyville (junior, 17-4, sectional qualifier) vs. Dave White of Waukegan West (senior, 28-4-2, state qualifier); Mel Heckman of Libertyville (senior, 39-7, fourth in state and sixth in 1989 state freestyle) vs. Derek Pijot of Lake Zurich (junior, 35-8, sectional qualifier).

The Canadian freestyle national team, is an improving young squad with international experience. The young American squad, coached by Tim Czyewski of Northwestern University and Bill Weick of Mount Carmel, will severely be tested by the seasoned Canadian lineup.

The problem with most car repair guarantees is they give you only temporary coverage.

Many cover parts but not labor. And many of those that do cover both parts and labor don't do so for long. That's why there's the Lifetime Service Guarantee.

Here's how it works. Once you pay for a covered repair at any participating Ford or Lincoln-Mercury dealer nationwide, the bill will be stamped as an LSG repair. Then, if the same repair ever needs to be done again, just show your receipt and we'll fix it free for as long as you own your car. Free parts. Free labor. For life. It's that simple.

The Lifetime Service Guarantee is America's best car repair guarantee, because it covers virtually everything except normal wear and maintenance items like wiper blades and tires. And only Ford, Lincoln and Mercury owners can get it.

So ask your dealer for a copy of the Lifetime Service Guarantee. Because Peace of Mind™ is being wrapped in a blanket coverage for life. Not a bandage that's sure to fall off before you know it.

LAKELAND'S SPRING SPORT PREVIEW

Mundelein softball player Ashley Struggles concentrates as she practices her hitting during practice session. Struggles is one of the top returning players from last year's softball team which qualified for the Elite Eight.—Photo by Joe Shuman

Outside practices may pay 'Cats dividends

Libertyville softball Coach Bob Fox is not one to stay in the friendly, warm confines of a gymnasium during March. Hitting ground balls off a tartan surface and having outfielders not be able to throw full speed is not his style of pre-season preparation.

"We have been able to get outside seven or eight times and it is helpful. It takes outfielders a while to get into the swing of things," Fox said.

The Wildcats are upbeat about the coming year because of returning players which they hope will end Mundelein's two-year North Suburban Conference domination.

Magibritt Andersen returns at catcher, as does Stacy Eppel at pitcher, first baseman; Allison Gustafson as a pitcher; Nancy McCormick as a designated hitter and Melinda McDonald as a shortstop.

"She has improved tremendously. She's our secret commodity right now," Fox said of Gustafson.

Fox, in his fourth year as head softball coach, said his team's strengths should be experience and pitching. "It is too early to tell on hitting," he said.

The Wildcats were 17-11 overall and 12-6 in the NSC, good enough for third place. But they lose to graduation last year's standout, Shannon Stanek, who is now playing at the College of Lake County.

North Suburban teams aiming for Mundelein

When a team qualifies for a state tournament, it is not unusual that it be comprised of seniors and that some rough years follow.

But fortunately for the Mundelein Mustangs, after a 1-0 loss to Belleville East last June, eight of the team members could at least look forward to another chance to make the trip south to Pekin.

"Absolutely," Mundelein Coach Jim deRivera said when asked if last year's experience helps in the early days of the 1990 season. "We have a great tradition and a lot of the kids have played three or four years now. The kids have been working real hard, hitting in the morning and at practice in the afternoon," he said.

The Mustangs have several pleasant memories to reflect back on in 1989. There was Susan Musselwhite's no hitters, Ashley Struggles' hitting, and the strong defense. There was playing eventual Elite Eight qualifiers Thornwood and Maine South in April in the cold in Mundelein. There were the three exciting one-run wins over Warren, the latter a 1-0 win in the Prospect final. There was Donna Deal, a 206 hitter for the season, punching home a single to score the winning run in a 6-5 win over Prospect, after Mundelein trailed 5-2 in the sectional title game.

But while players and fans may recall those moments, these days deRivera is thinking about 1990.

"It's a whole new season. I don't live off last year's laurels," he said.

Although Musselwhite, who rewrote the pitching record book at MHS, has graduated, top hitter and center fielder Struggles returns, after hitting .476 last year. Struggles impressed DePaul's coaching staff so much at the state tournament she later signed with the Blue Demons.

Also returning seniors are Michelle Strachn, who hit .463; Demi Micheau, who hit .314; Lynette Kowalke, who batted .302. Kim Burns, Katie Magoon and Cindy Shark were also on last year's roster.

Kowalke is the top pitcher for MHS at the start of the season, as she has 17 varsity wins to her credit.

"Defensively we need to be better than in the past because we don't have Susan's strikeouts. We will have to field the ball and throw runners out," deRivera said.

The catching position is being fought for by senior Sharon DeHart and Burns.

Freshmen Terilynn Starkey and Heather Moore hope to contribute. Junior Jennifer Huckel has been impressive hitting and at first base.

deRivera, whose team finished last year at 27-6, has 250 wins to his credit at Mundelein. deRivera's teams have won six NSC titles, but the coach does not concern himself too much with scouting the opposition. "My energies are focused on the Mustangs," he said.

CLC baseball squad off to good start for '90

By STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Now add baseball to the list of year-round college sports. At the College of Lake County in Grayslake, players have been preparing for the new season with conditioning every day as well as a fall baseball league and twice weekly workouts in the CLC gym.

This is a new approach for successful head CLC baseball Coach Gene Hanson, who is not afraid to start something new. "We have a lot more talent this year and we are much more experienced. We will have the ability to have a good season," Hanson said.

The Lancers, coming off a 34-17 campaign last spring, have already raised their expectations for the new season. Unlike the pros, who started late for spring training, an early thaw gave the CLC team a chance to play eight games. The Lancers won seven.

"Normally, when we leave for a spring break, we try to be .500. With the success we've had, we are looking to be over .500," Hanson said.

Hanson readily compares the team to the 1981 state championship squad. The lancers are trying to recapture that Skyway Conference magic which won them eight titles from 1977-1984.

Hanson said all pitchers "had a chance to pitch" during the eight games to start the year. Mark Ledinski, Bruce Wimer and Joe Uremovich all recorded two wins.

"I felt we hit the ball with some authority. The nice thing is we had a lot of two out RBIs. We did not leave a lot of runners on base," Hanson said. That was a bug-aboo for the Lancers last spring. They needed to beat Oakton one out of two times but Oakton won both games and eliminated the Lancers. "We got a little overconfident and they just hit the ball really well against our good pitchers. We mentally let up a little," Hanson said.

As far as outstanding hitters during the eight contests, Ledinski, a sophomore from Stevenson, led the way with a .437 average. Jim Larriuz, a Zion-Benton product, was right behind at .434. As a team, CLC out-hit the opposition .347 to .189. Larriuz's showing earned praise from Hanson. "He could have hit .600. He hit the ball that hard," he said.

The Lancers have three of their best pitchers back from 1989 as Ledinski (4-2 in 1989), Wimer (7-4) and Dodge (5-1) of Libertyville all return. Hanson said he will not be putting those names in rotation until after the spring trip to Tennessee and southern Illinois.

The Lancers have five left-handers on the roster. The lefties are Ledinski, Wimer, Uremovich, Dodge and Dan Grote of Antioch.

Mike Bablo of Antioch,

Jeff Pett of Grant, Tim Summers of Libertyville, Warren grad Paul Sanchez and Johnsbury grad Tony Weber round out the staff.

A diamond on the wall of Hanson's second-floor office at CLC has names of players on index cards next to their positions. Here is the CLC lineup as the Lancers prepared to leave the next day for games in warmer climates:

Carmel hopes to keep up '89 momentum, victories

There is something about winning 30 games.

"These guys want to taste some of that success," Carmel Coach Chuck Gandolphi said as he was about to begin a drill for outfielders last week.

The Corsairs, without even playing a game, have won the respect of the national pollsters. USA Today put the Corsairs, 30-2 last year, as its 10th rated team. "It's a definite plus. But it is what you do at the end of the season that counts," Gandolphi said.

Gandolphi was in his first year at Carmel this time last year, not quite knowing what to expect. What he got was a two month celebration of solid baseball as Carmel won more than 20 games in a row and dominated the East Suburban Catholic Conference. "The kids all handled it well. I was able to have that success because of the type of kids we had," the coach said.

Gandolphi had said the same words just after the Corsairs had been upset by Libertyville at the regional tournament in Bowen Park.

Carmel is without last year's top returning pitcher these days as Eric Maloney is vacationing in the west. That leaves Jim Cooney as the Carmel No. 1 pitcher. Maloney has chosen Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. to pitch for next year.

"We have a lot of pitching depth," Gandolphi, a Mundelein resident, said.

Also on the pitching staff are seniors Todd Reutledge, sophomore Dan Devito, juniors Chris Jones, Jason Hamlin and Rob Kellerman.

Offensively, Gandolphi described the team as a group of solid contact hitters. "We believe in putting the ball in play and making the other team make errors," he said.

Carmel has not had much of a chance to practice outside, as Mother Nature has not been friendly at CHS. "Inside has a bonus in that it forces us to use repetition," Gandolphi said.

"I think we will be strong defensively," the congenial mentor said.

Outfielders include senior Matt Simmons, Tim Shrank, Joe Rejczyk and Tom Wheeler.

Third basemen are Hamlin and Keller. At shortstop, senior Don Anderson, Cooney, Hamlin and Keller will play there from time to time. At second base, Dan Gramm and Cory Shutz will share that spot. Jim Cullotta and Reutledge are the first basemen.

"We try to win every game but we measure success with more than wins and losses. Success has more to do with work attitude and the improvement you make," Gandolphi said.

As far as the ESCC is concerned, Gandolphi said three or four teams could contend for the title, including Notre Dame, St. Joseph and Joliet Catholic.

Mentors Kessel, Martin ready for new challenges

By STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

They are certainly not strangers to their respective campuses. Both Mundelein baseball Coach Dennis Kessel and Larry Martin at Grayslake have been seen in various capacities at their respective schools, but are venturing into the third base coach's box for the first time.

"We want to re-establish the importance of knowledge of the game," new Grayslake baseball Coach Martin said.

For Kessel, head basketball coach at Mundelein, he has found differences between the two sports.

"After 13 years, I have found that baseball is a lot more laid back than basketball. It's not the constant on the go. There are times when the kids are not doing anything," Kessel said.

Kessel's challenge is to bring back a MHS program which was winless in the North Suburban Conference last year. There were some close calls, though.

The Mustangs are hoping juniors Shawn Harlan, Erik Gressinger, and seniors Brad Williams and Ken Umbdenstock will progress to be a formidable rotation.

In terms of hitting, Mike O'Conner, a junior, was the top hitter on the sophomore team.

"We want to be aggressive on the bases but we have to get men on base first," Kessel, who was a standout at Cathage College in Kenosha, said.

Martin was speaking with the enthusiasm of someone just given a new position with a full schedule of games still ahead of him. "I don't see any great changes in philosophy or style," Martin, who is also a trainer at GCHS, said.

Martin's appointment as head coach was confirmed by the GCHS Board of Education. Jim Haas, head coach from 1983-89, passed died from cancer this winter.

The Rams won three Northwest Suburban Conference titles under Martin's earlier stint, 1972, 1975 and 1980. The last best chance for Grayslake came in 1985-86 when they came within an inning of winning the crown.

LAKELAND'S SPRING SPORTS PREVIEW

Can 'Hawks, Rams keep dominance in NWSC?

Just under three weeks from now, Northwest Suburban Conference girls track and field fans should not make any other plans.

That's because the Grayslake and Johnsburg teams will clash along with host Wauconda in what could be a key pre-conference meet event.

"It will be a war when we face Johnsburg," Grayslake Coach Kathy Englund said.

Grayslake and Johnsburg have won the conference title each of the last four years, with Johnsburg capturing three of the four.

Grayslake is basing its optimism on its largest squad ever, with 29 on the team. "We have the depth," Englund said.

The Rams are led by returning state qualifier Chris Lupori. Lupori, who also plays volleyball and basketball for the Rams, will also compete in the hurdles.

Emily Woemmel, who was third in the shot put in sectionals, also returns. Distance specialist Lori Fling also is back for the Rams.

Sophomore Dee Parkham, a shot putter and sprinter, could contribute as an underclassman.

Meanwhile at Johnsburg,

Coach Bob Texidor has tradition on his side. "We have been peaking at the conference meet. Now we want to take it a step farther. The real test is in sectionals. That's when you need to perform well. Getting people downstate is what it is all about," Texidor said.

Indeed, the Skyhawks have been flying high after winning conference titles at Marengo and Wauconda but having disappointing ends at sectionals against bigger schools the next week.

"We have some newcomers who should help us out. The key will be how well we do in the field events," Texidor said.

Senior Niki Marriner will compete in the shot and discus along with sophomore Carrie Nelson.

Senior Ann Schwabauer will compete in the high jump while junior Beth Barrett is slated for the long jump.

Texidor said the team is in "pretty good shape" in the relays.

In the 3,200 meters, sophomore sisters Jackie and Jodi Giesi will be joined by Schwauber and senior Michelle Litt.

Litt, Schwauber and Barrett will be joined by junior Liz Nicks.

Texidor, who competed at Harper College, predicted a balanced conference race, though, as Marengo, Round Lake or Lake Zurich could join the top half.

But for Grayslake and Johnsburg, April 17 will be an important date.

After that meet, the next big showdown will be May 4 at Marengo at the NWSC meet.

Dempsey confident RL may vie for NWSC title

It was a certain day in May the members of the Round Lake boys track and field team will not soon forget.

There they were, enjoying a jog around the Grayslake Community High School track, shouting "Blue Thunder", after claiming the school's first NWSC title.

Although a scoring error allowed Lake Zurich to defend its league track title, Round Lake coach Kevin Dempsey had reason to be proud.

Now a new season is dawning for the gold and blue clad Round Lake team, and Dempsey knows it may take a while to round into conference meet form.

"We lost a lot of good seniors so with our sophomores and juniors it may take awhile," Dempsey said.

Dempsey pointed to sprinter Jim Rinaldi as one of the top returning athletes.

Two hurdlers are also back, juniors Mike Bragg and Marx Drath.

Rich Wons looks to contribute in the distance events and Pat Magness was third in the triple jump in the conference meet.

Senior Jason Gilley is back at pole vault, and junior Steve Pressior hopes to pitch in at shot put and discus.

Dempsey is assisted by Rob Rummel and Lance White, with Rummel handling the strength and conditioning and White the distance runners.

"We're just trying to improve from meet to meet," Dempsey said

Park sets meetings for softball leagues

The Waukegan Park Dist.'s beach volleyball organizational meeting will be held at the Belvidere Recreation Center, 412 S. Lewis Ave., Waukegan, on Wednesday, April 18 at 7:30 p.m.

Information pertaining to registration procedures, rule changes and fees will be reviewed at this time. All volleyball teams participating in Waukegan Park Dist. leagues during humbly.

The Panthers will have depth and the future on their side, as 33 of the 55 tracksters on the roster are underclassmen.

As for the NWSC season, Dempsey said Grant is always strong in the field events while Marengo and Lake Zurich also could be bound for the first division.

The conference will have at least one new face on the sidelines. Robert Lathrop has taken over as head coach at Grayslake.

the upcoming season are required to have a representative present at this meeting.

Leagues being offered are Women's Classic, Women's American, Men's Triples, Co-Recreational and Co-Competitive. All games will be played at the City of Waukegan's municipal beach front.

For more information, call (708) 662-0186.

Hoping to repeat

Members of the Lake Zurich boys track and field team show off Northwest Suburban Conference trophy won last year at Grayslake High. Bears are looking to defend their title this spring. Round Lake and Grant could give champions a tough time. Round Lake is hoping 55 athletes out for the team, 33 underclassmen, could give them a bright future as well. In the girls NWSC race, Grayslake and Johnsburg are expected to vie for top spot.

LAKELAND'S SPRING SPORTS PREVIEW

Softball squad features youth, family at CLC

STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

When most softball seasons begin, coaches like to commence the season with a hot start.

But that was not the case for the College of Lake County softball team. The Lancers, ranked in Region V pre-season polls, fell to Harper 5-2 in 26 degree weather. The wind chill factor was in the single digits. "It was too cold and the field was too wet," CLC Coach Sue Garcia said.

But despite the slow start, Garcia is optimistic as the team heads for warmer climates this week on the annual spring trip through Oklahoma and Texas.

"We are going to play some good competition down south, but this is the most talented group I've had," Garcia said.

Garcia, in her fifth year at CLC, is hoping the Lancers can defend their Skyway Conference title with a young team which puts the emphasis on family. Kathleen Quilty, from Libertyville, is the lone sophomore on the team.

The sisters Gusts and Johansen may make it difficult for scorekeepers. Karen Gust is an outfielder while Kelly Gust, who pitched in the season opener, is also a shortstop. Both graduated from Waukegan West.

Sandy and Sara Johansen, from Zion-Benton High, are also on the squad. Sandy plays catcher and outfielder while Sara plays first base and outfield.

The Lancers may be young, but they are not without their credentials.

Jessica Elsner, from Grayslake, is a second baseman who was all Northwest Suburban Conference and hit .351 last year.

Kim McDonald, a third Zion-Benton product on the roster, hit .337 and scored 43 runs and had 25 RBIs in 1989. She plays outfield and shortstop.

An injury kept Leslie Mroz, a Grant product, out of softball last year, but she is back looking to recapture her 1988 all-county form.

Shannon Stanek, a third baseman and outfielder who starred for Libertyville High, is also on the team along with catcher-outfielder Andrea True from Warren. Both players were also on the volleyball team at CLC.

Stacy Pohlman of Lake Zurich comes to CLC after her high school team won the Northwest Suburban Conference title last spring.

One of the Lancers' strengths could be depth in the outfield. They have two players for each position there.

"They are much more advanced. You did not see any Susan Musselwhites (who led Mundelein to the Elite Eight last year) then. Now they are more specialized. They have come a long way," Garcia said.

Garcia won the conference title in her first year with a 12-0 record, 21-13 overall.

The next year the Lancers were 8-4 in the league, 21-31 overall. And last year CLC was 9-3 in the Skyway.

The infield is capable of making the big plays. Hanson believes, and is solid on the routine grounders. Dodge returns at first base, hitting third. Round Lake grad Tim Unroe will handle the hot corner at third base and will bat clean-up. Unroe also could steal some bases, as he had eight thefts before the spring trip.

Greg Green is overcoming a basketball injury at second base. He will bat second, where he struck out only four times in 191 plate appearances last year.

Betterman, an excellent bunter according to Hanson, will start at shortstop.

Larruz will back up at third base when not pitching or could be a designated hitter.

Bill Demo, a Round Lake product, will handle the catching. "Bill is like a coach on the field because he is always in the game," Hanson said.

Sam Austin is the lead off hitter and center fielder. A Waukegan resident, he was previously drafted by the Reds. Matt Wasmer, a Libertyville grad, transferred from Eastern Illinois.

Meanwhile in right field, Chris Nelligan from Waukegan and Dave Otto, a Stevenson graduate, will play right field. Jared Fogel, a sophomore from Antioch, is expected to see playing time in the outfield as well.

LAKE LAND'S SPRING SPORTS PREVIEW

New-look Sequoits aim to make waves in NSC

As an careful observer of Antioch Community High School baseball will say, there is a new look to the Sequoits this year.

Coach Greg Decker, in his second year at the helm, has his team dressed in new uniforms for the 1990 season. And that is not all Decker has been changing as the program begins to take shape in his own image.

"Last year was my first year and I basically was more of an observer, riding out what was here the previous year. I did not want to make a lot of changes. The fill year though gives me a little perspective," Decker said as the 1990 season began.

Decker said he "selected the kids which best fit the program. I didn't want to deal with any bad attitudes. Sometimes it will be attitudes that win games."

In addition to the new uniforms, the Sequoits will be getting an outside hitting cage and a scoreboard. Decker said the improvements will be felt all the way to the freshmen level.

In addition, Antioch will be joining a summer baseball league.

Six seniors are on the Antioch roster.

"I expect a lot out of Jon," Decker said of DeBernardis, who hit .405 last year.

Seniors on the team include Joe Rohde, a shortstop and pitcher; Dan Lamb, a first baseman; Jeremy Lee, center and right fielder; Dave Mayer, left fielder and pitcher; Jeff Rey.

Antioch graduated most of the experienced pitchers from last year's 10-16-1 squad.

"It's too early to tell," Decker said of hitting skills.

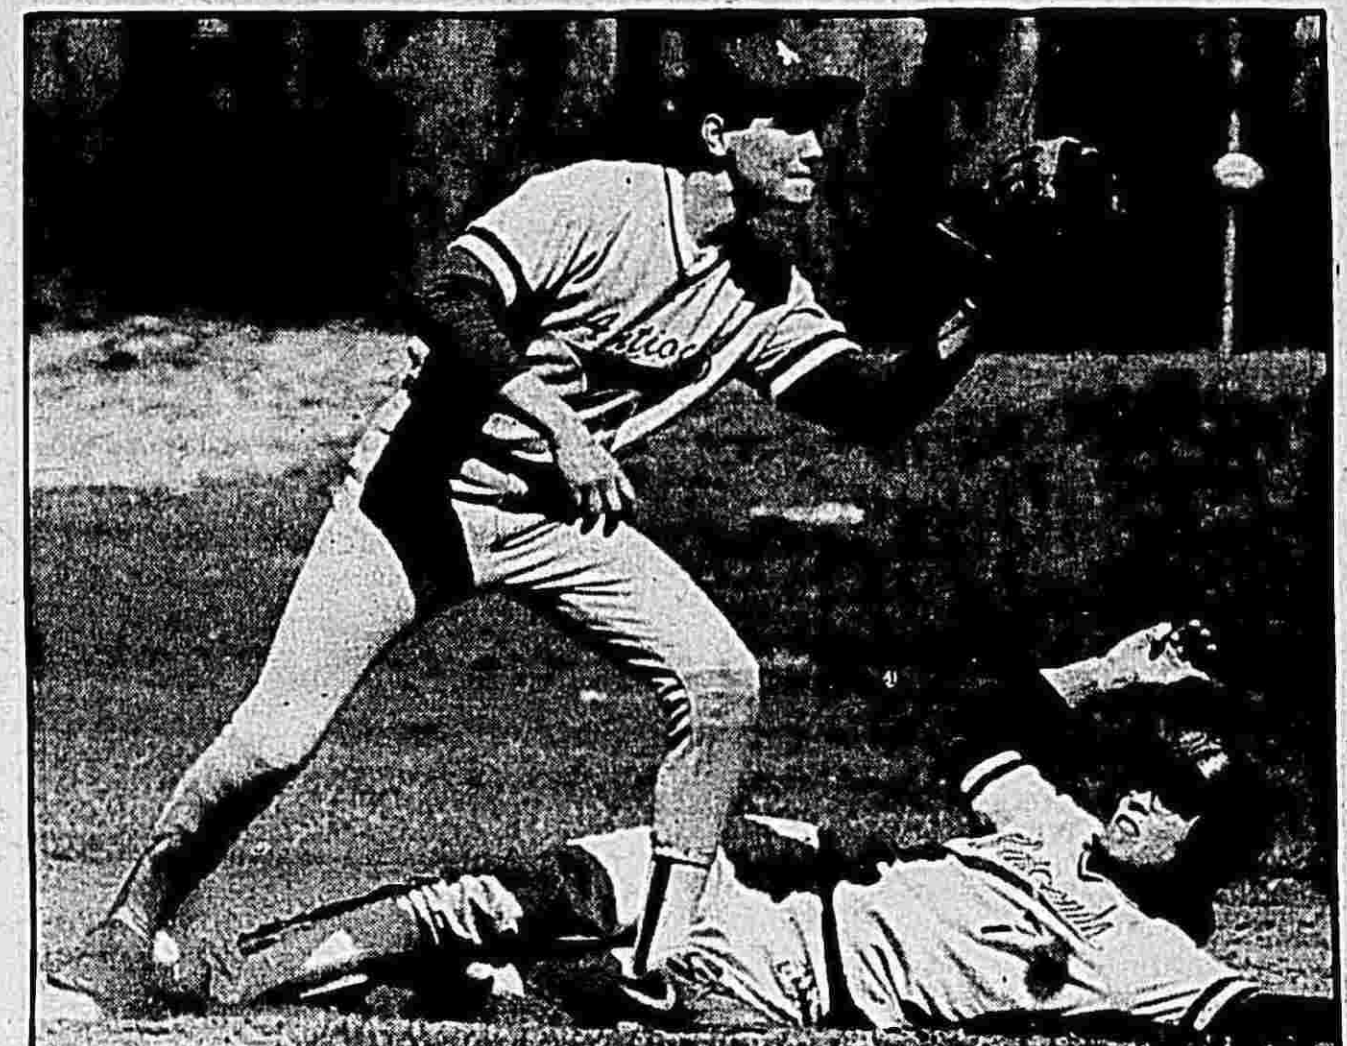

Junior Keith DePepperschmidt, MVP on the sophomore team, is a pure contact hitter, the coach said.

As far as the North Suburban Conference race is concerned, Lake Forest has the most returning players to challenge annual powers Stevenson and Libertyville. "You can't count Zion-Benton out," Decker said.

Carden in action

No-hitter stops Antioch in season-opening loss

It was not the kind of start Antioch baseball Coach Greg Decker had hoped for.

The Sequoits fell victim to a no-hitter, fielding problems and the cold in losing a doubleheader to Chicago Christian Monday. Antioch fell 4-1 in the first game and 5-2 in the second.

"Our hitting was obviously dead and we could not make the routine plays," Decker said of the first game.

The Sequoits had five errors in the season opener. "It's just a matter of practice," Decker said.

Antioch scored its lone run in the first inning and had a 1-0 lead in game one. Jeff Rey walked, Keith DePepperschmidt bunted, and a passed ball and sacrifice fly accounted for the run.

The hitting picked up for the visitors in the second game and Antioch cut the errors down to one.

Joe Rohde was two-for-three with a double and two RBIs. Dave Gadia was one-for-four with a double and pitched the first three innings. Dave Maier also had a hit.

"It's early yet. I have some good rivalries going for the infield positions," Decker said.

Antioch has not settled starters yet, as there are two candidates at third base and three at shortstop, among others. "I won't make any quick judgments," Decker said.

Decker had praise for the Antioch conquerors this cold March day. "They did a great job pitching. These guys had quality pitchers," he said.

Wildcats regroup for another state run

by VINCE VITTORE
Lakeland Newspapers

Life around the Libertyville gymnastic program has been good for the past five years. Since gaining its first state meet birth in 1985, the Wildcats have been one of the top eight teams in state four times.

This year may be different however as coach Paul Blasko finds himself in the midst of what appears to be a rebuilding year.

After starting the season with a score of 109, the Wildcats have improved to 124 in the last two weeks. Despite the apparent drastic improvement, Blasko is looking for even greater things from his team after the spring break.

"I would hope we could get between 135 and 140," he said. "This is kind of a rebuilding year for us."

Forming the foundation of that rebuilding task will be senior co-captains Matt Schmidt and Tyler Brady. Schmidt, who qualified for the state meet last season on still rings, has picked parallel bars and pommel horse for this year. Brady, a horse specialist, has added still rings and rings.

Schmidt has been scoring in the low to mid eights so far, but will be shooting for somewhere above the 9.0 mark by the time state meet rolls around.

The Wildcats will also be relying on top all-arounder Chris Stein, who is averaging in low seven's. The Wildcats should also be solid on vault and parallel bars, Blasko said.

Not coincidentally, Stein's strongest event, floor exercise is also the Wildcats best. Stein has hit 8.3 early in the season and will be leading a strong contingent that could average in the upper seven range.

The Wildcats may also add some depth to their already strong vaulting lineup with senior Dion Stevenson, a transfer from Evanston.

Even with a solid group of individuals leading the way, Blasko is cautious about making predictions.

"We might have an outside shot of making (state meet)," he said. "But we have a few guys going for individuals."

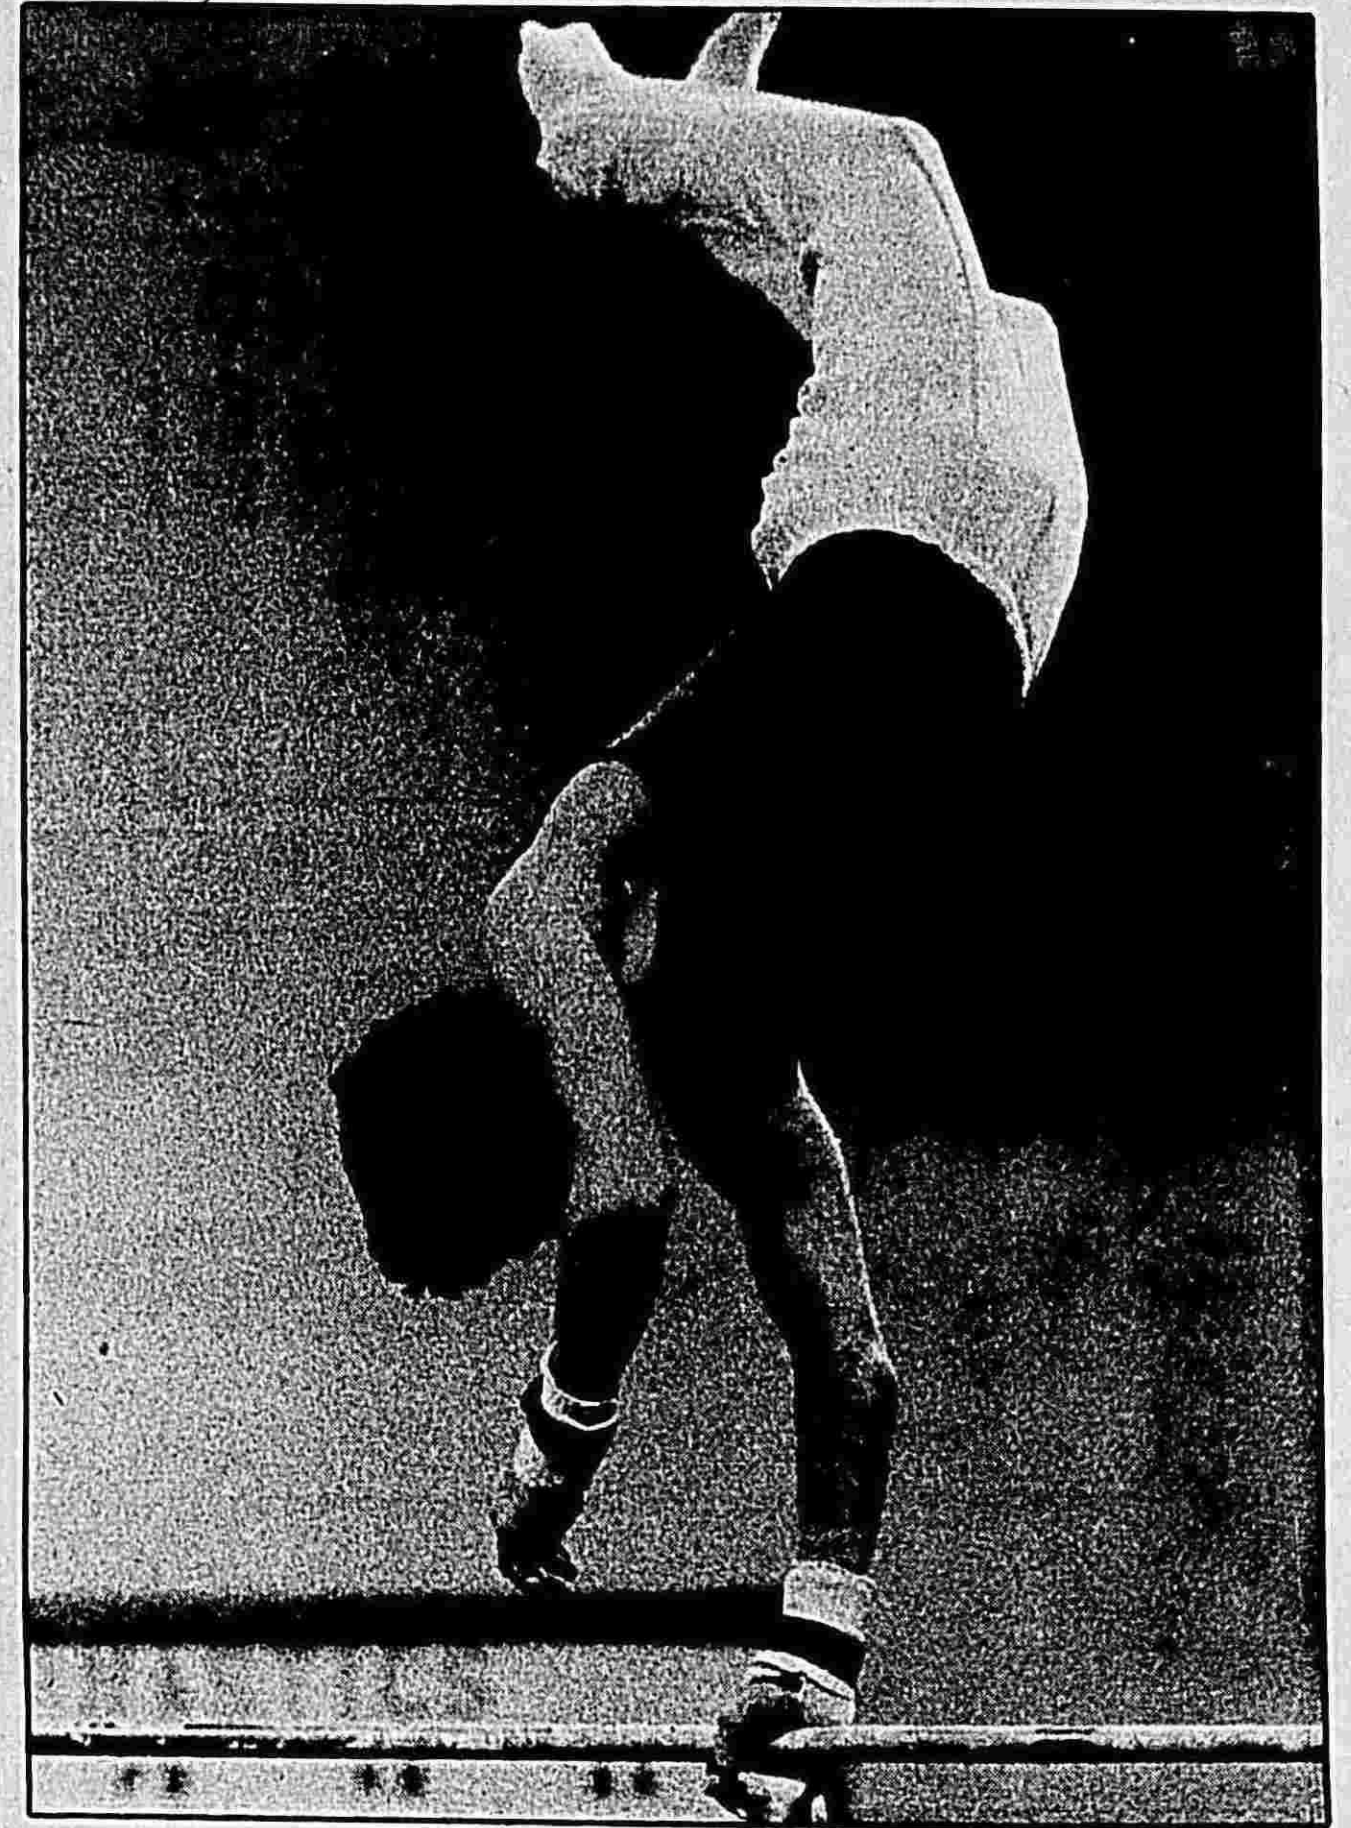

One area that may need help if Libertyville is to make it to the state meet is high bar, Blasko said.

However, with spring break and no meets for two weeks, Blasko will have some time to work with his gymnasts.

"We'll do a lot of regrouping after spring break," he said.

Mustangs shooting for second state title

by VINCE VITTORE
Lakeland Newspapers

Repeating as state champions in any sport is difficult. With graduation, injuries and all the other variables, repeat champions are rare.

But repeating is exactly what is on the mind of Mundelein gymnastics coach Doug Foerch.

Despite an early season loss to Hersey, Foerch has confidence in his team.

The Mustangs are led by a team of six all-arounders. However, senior T.J. Dortch, who took home the all-around and parallel bars state titles, and senior Jeff Turnbull, who tied for fifth place on still rings, have been out with a variety of injuries.

"Everyone thinks (T.J.) is my top all-arounder, but right now he's only about 60 to 70 percent. The same goes with Jeff Turnbull."

"Hopefully we'll be on track soon."

With Turnbull and Dortch out, the role of top all-arounder is falling to Jason Kobeck and Jim Gonzalez.

Despite the injuries and an early season loss to Hersey, which is the top-ranked team in the state, the Mustangs are scoring in the 140's in early meets, ranking them as one of the top teams in the state.

"By the end of the year our team goal is 160," Foerch said.

Foerch is expecting a 160 to win the state meet.

"I believe 160 should win it. If it doesn't it doesn't, but that's what we're shooting for," he said.

In addition to Hersey, Foerch is expecting to be competing with Conant, Rolling Meadows and Hinsdale Central for the state crown.

LAKELAND'S SPRING SPORTS PREVIEW

Rams softballers hope versatility means victories

In an age of specialization in sports, this spring's Grayslake Community High School softball squad is choosing to go back to versatile roles.

"Several members of the team have the abilities to play different positions, depending upon who the pitcher is for the game. A lot of physical talent has been displayed in practice; the question being - can they execute in varsity competition," Grayslake Coach Elaine Frantz said.

The Rams are coming off a 9-13 season, 7-7 in the Northwest Suburban Conference a fifth place finish. There will not be many players sitting on the Grayslake bench this spring, as only 13 players are on the varsity team, three seniors and 10 juniors. Last year the team had 18 players.

The three seniors - third baseman and captain Terry Cowell, first baseman and outfielder Julie Ring were on the freshmen squad when Grayslake had its last big success in softball - winning a regional title in 1986.

"I hope to finish in the top two or three in the conference," Frantz said.

The pitching staff should consist of: Allyn Jeffrey, Tracy McClanahan and Chris Schaefer, all juniors. "Some mechanical techniques have been improved and thus control and speed should result. Each day their pitching skill is getting stronger, but they must strive to work on using the proper techniques and throw a lot of pitches daily," Frantz said in a pre-season perspective.

Frantz will be assisted this spring by Gary Olson. Olson joined the GCHS staff following the death of teacher and baseball Coach Jim Haas. When there is a debate over a call, Frantz may ask Olson's opinion, as he has umpired softball.

Cowell, a senior letter winner, last year played at third for GCHS. She had a .940 fielding percentage and an on-base average of .457 along with a .242 batting average. "She has displayed strong leadership qualities and went to softball camp this summer," Frantz said.

Ring played outfield as well as first last year. She has been working hard to improve her hitting. Strengths include speed on both offense and defense.

Stephanie Whipple, the third senior, played second base and outfield but was behind all NWSC Jessica Elsner, who is now at the College of Lake County.

The Rams open the season April 4 at Antioch and host Crystal Lake Central in a doubleheader April 7 before league play begins at Marian Central April 10.

Of the juniors, the contingent won the freshmen league title but slipped as sophomores.

Nicole LaCroix caught most of the games last year for the sophs, but also plays shortstop. Skills include strong arm, good glove and speed on the bases.

Chris Faymonville: played center field for the sophs, Frantz said she can cover a lot of territory in the outfield.

Stacy Woynar: first baseman for the soph team, she could play first or outfield.

Kristin VanEs: has experience at many positions, will probably be used in the outfield.

Kelly Craig: played second base for the sophomore team, but is expected to play more outfield this year. "She can judge the ball well and is improving on her throwing abilities. She has quick hands in the batter's box," Frantz said.

Chris Shaeffer: played as a freshman until a broken ankle cut her season short, did not play last year. Could pitch or play outfield.

Denise Reidel: the leading hitter on the sophomore team, she plays outfield.

Rebecca Weeks: trying to bounce back from last year's injury problems.

Defense is still priority for Warren's Jeffrey

The colors of the jackets may change and the ride to work may be different, but the softball philosophy has not changed for Linda Jeffrey.

"The main objective is to take care of the defense and the offense will only have to score a few runs," Jeffrey said.

And Jeffrey is hoping to keep the Warren girls sports success story upbeat. Jeffrey's volleyball team won the regional title and the girls basketball team advanced to the Sweet Sixteen.

Jeffrey, who took over the Warren program after Chris Woodard resigned for a coaching position at Highland Park, has already seen some positives.

All-North Suburban Conference team member Heather Olejak returns to lead the defense at catcher.

"She has just missed hitting some vans from our hitting practice area. Heather is real smart and she is a real leader. She is my second in command," Jeffrey said.

While most of the headlines last spring went to Mundelein's advancing to the Elite Eight, Warren did not have a shabby year at all for itself. The Blue Devils challenged Mundelein to three one-run games, including a 1-0 loss to the Mustangs in the sectional at Prospect. The top pitcher for Warren,

Crystal Cobb, has graduated, but a number of young players are ready to take her place.

Juniors Kate Serdar have been coming along well as had Nicki Stolarik. Sophomore Tina Blankly also pitches for Warren and is a good fielder as well, Jeffrey said.

Junior Jenny Pulaski is described as a "real scrappy player" by Jeffrey and could play shortstop or third base.

Second base was "up for grabs", Jeffrey said, as the days dwindled before the April 2 opener at Round Lake. Juniors Rebecca Yukna, Kristin Haines, Rachel Iwanski and Kris Slobnick are all vying for the position.

Marnie Rettig is Warren's first baseman.

The outfield could consist of Amy Gallaher, Shawn Corsi, Stacey Stied and Michelle McGrath.

Ready for new season

Helping the hungry 'a labor of love'

by PAT CHRISTENSEN
Lakeland Newspapers

Twenty-two church and community organizations came together, with an estimated 90 volunteers among them, to assist the Lake County Food Resource Council with their annual food drive, which was held on the last day of Hunger Awareness Week (March 17-24).

By the end of the day, the council had accepted and re-distributed $9,000 worth of food and $3,800 in donations. Director Barbara Dahl said that, although the annual event (held at the Illinois Cooperative Extension Service) only lasted from 10:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m., donations of food or money will be gladly accepted and redistributed by the organization throughout the year.

Donations will be accepted at P.O. Box 685, Grayslake, Ill 60030, and interested parties may call Dahl at the Cooperative Extension Service at (708) 223-8627.

"We really have two food drives during the year," said Dahl, "this one, of course, and then our biggest food drive in the fall. That's the one we do with the Boy Scouts."

Dahl said that the group almost never turns away food, although some things cannot be distributed. "We sometimes get cans that are very rusted or bulging, and these, of course, are not fit for human consumption. But everything else we do distribute."

"We have to be careful that what we distribute is wholesome. But people give food they've tried and don't like themselves, thinking, well, perhaps the poor people will like it. But the poor like the same things we do."

Monetary donations are used for Jewel Food certificates. "This fills in the cracks with perishable items that might not keep as long as canned or boxed items," Dahl explained. "When we buy these certificates in bulk we get a discount on them. For example if we buy $5,000 worth of certificates, we will actually get $5,200 worth. This helps the families out and lets them choose their own food occasionally."

Dahl said that many food pantries, soup kitchens and other food distributors have refrigerators and freezers, so that donations of meat and other perishable items can be distributed, within limits. She doesn't like to see donations such as turkey come in too often, however.
